AND HERE IS THE 1952 EDITION OF THE SCARLET S.

Already we are in the second year of the second half-century of the grand twentieth century. It doesn't seem possible that graduation time is here again and we as seniors will soon leave our favorite high school.

The staff has endeavored to present a yearbook that will show the year's activities in picture and story. We also have wanted to show some of the opportunities that have been ours for four, five, and six years—opportunities to associate with others, to know our teachers, to take part in many activities and athletic events. These have been ours and we believe that our future is better for having this background.

AS YOU (MAY OR MAY NOT) LIKE IT

A play in three acts written by the SCARLET S STAFF and produced by the faculty and students of Shelby High School.

Directed by Mr. Carmean and Mr. McCollough.

Music by Mr. Braden and Mr. Sommerville.

Stage crew: Mr. Weaver, Mr. Fair, Mr. Brissel.

Acknowledgement: inspiration by the "LEAD".

Carol Griffith and Eric Morse look at a September calendar . . .

PROPERTIES

Jeans and letter sweaters
Union and Confederate hats
Hair bows for new "horses tails"
Jalopies of unknown origin
Battered and much used (?) books
Artistically engraved desks
A stray white mouse or two
Assorted lipsticks and combs scattered here and there
A bottle or two of peroxide
A grade card stuffed down in some dark corner
A few dozen pair of lost glasses
A red corduroy coat lined with yellow and black plaid

SOUND EFFECTS

Clanging, banging lockers
Radiators of the noisiest variety
Click, click of numerous typewriters
Squealing car brakes
Chewing (or otherwise) of gum in perfect rhythm
Music (?) from band-room
A few shrieks and dull thuds from game-room
Laughter in all stages of development—titter to "beller"

MISCELLANEOUS

A few "little willie" jokes
Slight detection of some deadly odor from Chem-lab.
A few withering looks
Curled eyelashes (for a purpose, boys)

CAST

JUNIOR HIGH—just starting on the path of "growing-up"
FRESHMAN CLASS—the seniors their knights in shining armor
SOPHOMORE CLASS—no punches pulled on these kids
JUNIOR CLASS—almost the best; they've made it this far, there's hope for the future
SENIOR CLASS—the epitome of accomplishment; they've worked for this for twelve years
FACULTY—plays the "LEAD"—but always willing to aid the supporting cast with their lines

SYNOPSIS OF SCENES

PLACE: The entire action of this play takes place in the classrooms and halls of Shelby High School

TIME: Anytime—past and present—from 8:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. and on into the "wee hours"

CENTERS OF INTEREST: Room 204, the gym, and 210 study hall

ACT I

SCENE I

The play begins September fourth, over the din of cheery greetings and shouts, but, finally the house lights dim, and one of the directors steps forward to welcome back the cast, and greet the new performers. Books are issued, and scene one is well under way.

The opening action of the play takes its form in the football preview with Madison. The Wooster Chorus provides background music and sound enjoyment. And all dimple sweetly at the camera the next day for the annual pictures. Some of the boys even had their foreheads powdered to take away that youthful shine. Despite poisonous grimaces, our guess is that they did not mind too much—the girls were very careful not to get any in their eyes. The twenty-fourth was the big day for the juniors, even if rather confusing—when they picked their class rings. We wonder how long those boys were able to keep the rings?

"El Circulo Espanol" held its initiation the eighth of October; roars for seniors, terrors for juniors, a minor tragedy or two, and a whale of a lot of fun crammed into one short evening. And on the fifteenth the student body was entertained by the clever Andrew DeCosta who played some dozen or so musical instruments, even two and three at a time! The night of the twenty-fifth of October witnessed the huge bonfire and wierd snake dance as a warning to Norwalk who would challenge our Whippets the following night—our Homecoming game. Our boys shone that night; the Queen was beautiful and they presented her with a 32 to 19 victory. October was ushered out with a Hallowe'en Dance, sponsored by the seniors.

SCENE II

"Bach to Beethoven"—and the new month is started out with an assembly by one of the guests of the student council, George Johnson. Representatives from the Ministerial Association brought the students an assembly of inspiration and challenge. The seventh and eighth of November we rocked and roared at "Cheaper by the Dozen" with "Papa Danny" and presented by the Junior Class. The following night we were hosts to Crestline and walked off with a victory. This one held a sense of soberness for the seniors—those who played in the game,

AS YOU (MAY OR MAY NOT) LIKE IT

and those who played in the band—it meant the last football game in which they might participate at Shelby High. That was an important game to those fellas and gals. The sixteenth marked the night of the football banquet. Have you ever noticed—it is usually just before a vacation that such things are planned? It probably would take quite a while to digest all the over abundant "victuals". Everyone was ready for the much-needed, well-earned Thanksgiving vacation—even the faculty, bless them! It was at this time that peoples all over the world, as well as here in our own small city and school, held high their hopes, and lifted their prayers for peace as the cease-fire talks began in Korea. We believed we might well have something to be truly thankful for.

ACT II

SCENE I

December first ushered in the Junior Dance. On the fourth the seniors suffered through the O.S.U. Psychology Test and took it like veterans. However, it did not seem to weary them sufficiently to keep them home from the game that night, and we didn't even notice any case of acute indigestion in the cafeteria at noon. The afternoon of the sixteenth the public was invited to hear the choir and the various other groups present their annual Christmas program.

And so, at last, the big event of the year, the "SNOWBALL" sponsored by the Spanish Club. What a gala affair! All welcomed with open arms and light hearts the Christmas vacation which came early this year because of too much (?) snow.

(INTERMISSION)

There's no rest for the wicked. This is the time for dances, games, sleds, skates, and all the regalia that's part of Christmas itself. No sleep—too much food—ah, our poor generation is dissipating. Woe is we!

(ON STAGE)

SCENE II

January seventh marshalled back again the flock—now full of XMAS goodies, New Year's resolutions, and with complete new wardrobes. Back into the harness! And about this time Mrs. Lafferty was giving the hubby new pills to quiet his "driver nerves"; these hundred mile trips by night's obscure dangers are nothing to scorn. However, he's (quote) never lost a single victim yet (unquote). The twenty-sixth was dated as the night of the Thespian "Carnival Dance" but a possible flood changed plans a bit, and it was finally called off. Poor Miss "K" (or should we say "Mrs.") and her luck!

- - - Carole La Bonte thinks about graduation time in May.

Amid smothered screams and wary looks from the girls, and teasing glances and genuine interest from the boys, Larry Tetslaff presented his informing and most unusual collection of snakes. On February first a poor group of seniors congregated in 210 to labor over the General Senior Scholarship Test. We might add, also, that on the second the groundhog did see his shadow. On the sixth we received the sad news of the death of England's King George. We mourned along with Britain. Ah, Valentine Day once more, and the sixteenth the F.H.A. and the F.F.A. sponsored their Queen of Hearts Dance. Once more we thanked the Father of our Country for a day of rest.

March fifth brought us the Denison Players. And later the All-School Play. We welcomed visitors for Career Day, and we thank them and our own Mr. Wendland for all the aid they have given us now and in the past to help us in our choices for the future. It will ever be appreciated.

ACT III

SCENE I

April second—good and otherwise—we took the preliminary district state scholarship tests. Those top three in each subject at least get a nice ride to Wooster on May third. The League Choir Festival follows. And the poor eighth graders—we who know sympathize. April eighteenth was their big test day.

SCENE II

April seventh, and the Carrols bring to us our last assembly. This year the League Band Festival is right here at home. The big night—the seventeenth! Music soft, stars in her eyes, and billows of pale net—don't feel neglected, boys, this is her night, you know. What else?—THE PROM!

Finally, the climax; some glad, some sad, all solemn. The Baccalaureate Service and Commencement sadden the hearts and challenge the soul of each and every senior.

SCENE III

Finally, the last day of school arrives and the underclassmen jubilantly tear away; the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors to return for a command performance next year—the seniors to be spectators. Carry on, kids. We're with you a hundred percent!

CURTAIN!

WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK . . .

TO . . .
J. E. McCOLLOUGH

Mr. J. E. McCollough
The McCollough Family—
Marcia, Judy, Mr. and Mrs.
McCollough

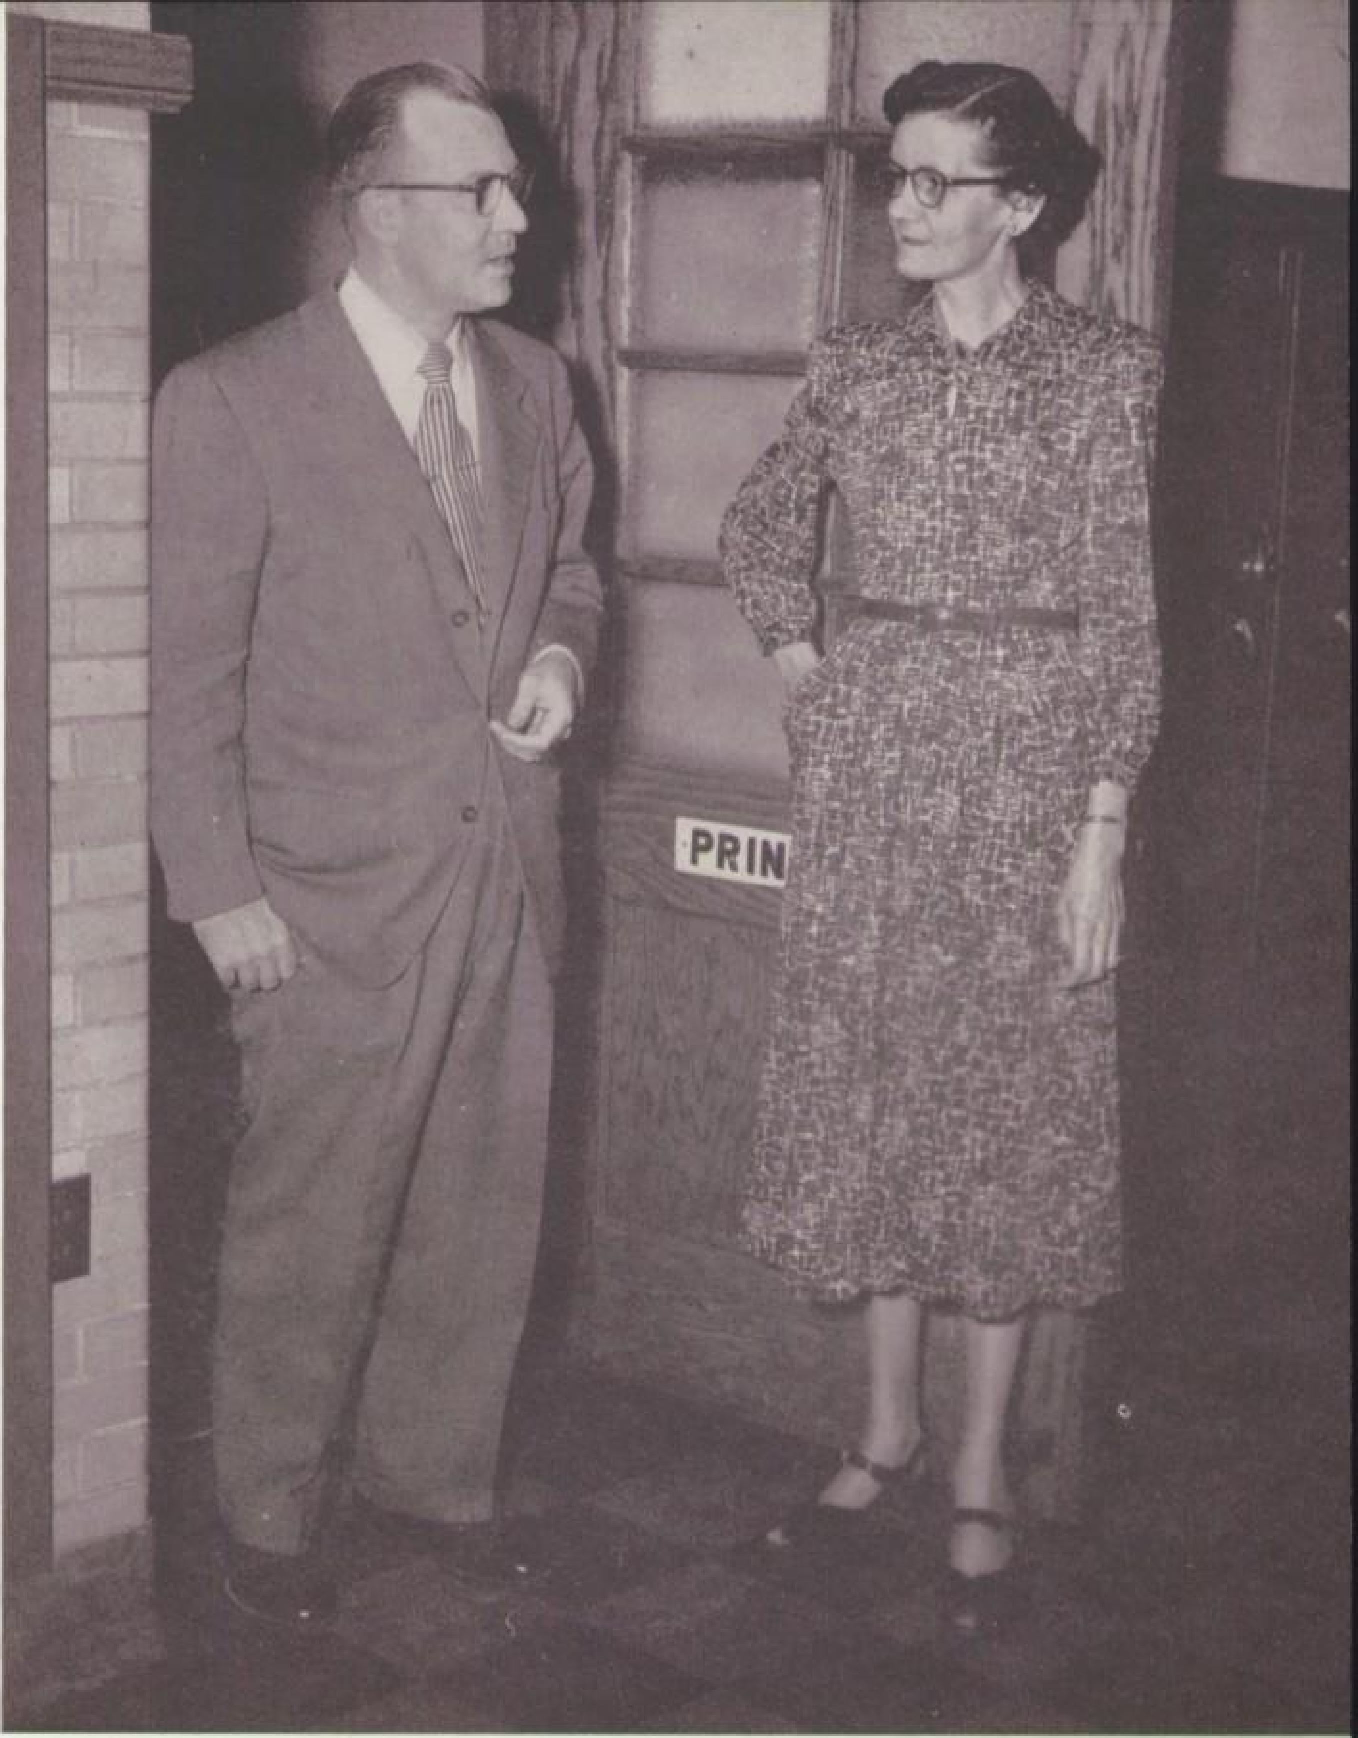
Six years ago the class of 1952 became a real part of the high school and high school life. Yes, we had finally made it—seventh graders at last.

We weren't the only addition to the school that year. For at the same time came the man who was to be our friend and leader throughout our high school careers. It is our sincere hope that with the dedication of this book to J. E. McCollough we can show in some small way our appreciation of his constant efforts in our behalf.

Mr. McCollough has always managed to find time for us no matter how frequent our complaints or fantastic our requests. Despite administrative details, telephone calls, committees, recommendations, and necessary disciplinary problems his calm has remained unruffled.

The last six years have held problems, good times, and never to be forgotten moments for our class. May we never forget these days nor the man who has helped make them one of the happiest phases of our lives.

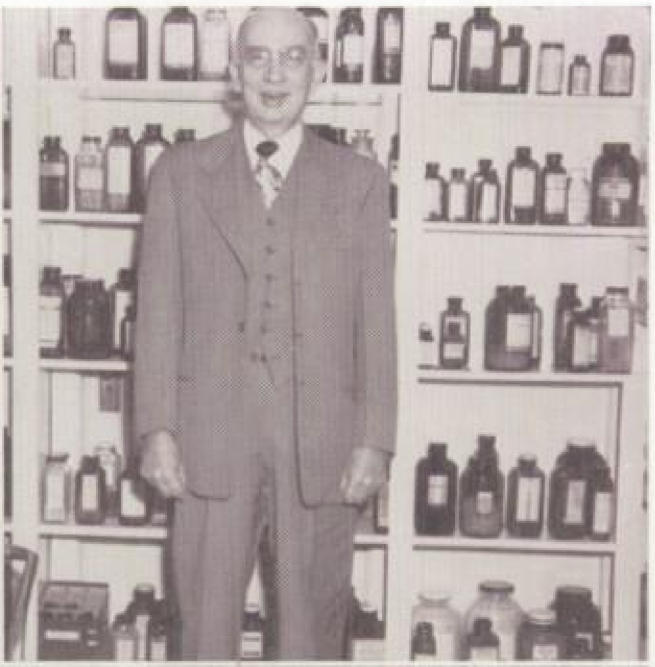
FACULTY



Mrs. Yetzer and Mr. Markin serve as typical examples of our Shelby High faculty. We can look with pride upon this mainstay of our school system. We students have our personal favorites and of course we have our pet peeves but we wouldn't trade our teachers no matter what was offered in return.

THEY TRANSACT THE SCHOOL'S BUSINESS

Mr. Arthur Love



Dr. E. D. Dowds

Mr. J. A. Anderson

Mr. E. Paul Curry

Mr. Wayne Carleton

Mr. Sanford Weaver

Mr. Reymer Bricker

The Board of Education of the Shelby City Schools is composed of five men who are elected by the people of the community and school district. These men are Mr. Arthur Love, Mr. Reymer Bricker, Mr. Wayne Carleton, Mr. E. Paul Curry, and Dr. E. D. Dowds. Mr. J. A. Anderson served until January 1st and then was succeeded by Mr. Carleton. Mr. Anderson did not run for reelection to the board. These busy business and professional men meet regularly throughout the year to transact the business for the school. Mr. Sanford Weaver is clerk-treasurer for the Board of Education.

Mr. Byron H. Carmean, A.B., M.A.

Mr. Carmean, as Superintendent of Shelby Schools, has proven himself a very capable and wise counselor in handling the affairs and business transactions of the schools.

BH Carmean

HE IS SUPERINTENDENT OF THE SCHOOLS OF SHELBY.

Susan Whisler

Miss Susan Whisler,
Mr. Carmean's secretary

Susan was one of our "own" last year but has since progressed to be a very competent secretary and receptionist. Her efficiency in the office and her ever-ready smile to visitors are a credit to the school.

SHELBY'S PRINCIPAL

Mr. J. E. McCollough, B.S., M.A.

A thousand administrative details keep our principal always busy and concerned about the school.

AND OFFICE SECRETARY

Mrs. Ruth Cronenwett,
Mr. McCollough's secretary

Our secretary began this school year as Miss Ruth Lux but at Christmas time she journeyed to California and returned as Mrs. Stanley Cronenwett. We extend to her, our very best wishes for her happiness.

SCHOOL EMPLOYEES

MAKE..OUR SCHOOL PLEASANT

BUS DRIVERS: Ollie Cline, Homer Hopton, Jerry Laser, Perry McKinney, Victor Stine, Sam Stover, Howard White, and John Reed.
James Crum, Harry Chew, and Henry Sheerer. (The latter three became a part of the Shelby system when the Sharon Township Schools were transferred to Shelby.)

SCHOOL ENUMERATOR: Mrs. Nellis Oates.

SENIORS

Klopfenstein

John Yetzer is discussing the completing of application forms for the United States Coast Guard Academy with Mr. Wendland and Sheila Dubuc looking on. Sheila is completing application requirements for admission to college.

Shelby Seniors have a chance to go over college requirements and applications together with job applications so as to prepare themselves for better living.

THESE ARE OUR CLASS OFFICERS

Fred White

OUR PRESIDENT
He knows his rule.

FRED WHITE

Fred has been a leader in many groups. For manners, poise, and good looks—Fred is tops.

SECRETARY-TREASURER
She holds the purse strings.

SALLY HARBAUGH

This talented girl's accomplishments are unlimited. She has attained the admiration and respect of all who know her.

Bob Utz

VICE-PRESIDENT
He likes his animals.

ROBERT UTZ

Where there is fun and good times you can be sure Bob will be there—A jovial young lad with three loves: His car, football, and hunting (what).

And These Are The Members Of The Executive Committee.

SHELBY SENIORS SHALL NEVER FORGET

DEAN ADAMS

Dean's stamina on the football field has done much for the fame of Shelby High; just a look at those mischievous eyes and perhaps you'll surmise in what directions his other talents lie.

JANE ANDERSON

Her easy way and her ready smile have won her many and lasting friendships. Sometimes we wonder where she learned to park (Mr. Lafferty?).

ALICE BIGLIN

Dark hair and dark eyes —with a quiet personality —these make Alice a pleasing friend to all.

JOSEPH BODKIN

Look real hard and you'll be sure to find Joe behind that camera; however, you don't have to look hard to find the traits that make him a favorite of the senior class.

LOIS BOSTON

It is amazing to us how Lois can work so hard and still have energy to spare. But, somehow she does it.

JUDITH BRICKER

To Judy cheerfulness is as natural as eating three meals a day. If her laughter and pleasantness were contagious, there would be many happier people.

KATHLEEN BRODERICK

There are very few girls that you will find as loyal and as true as Kathleen. Better known as "Butch", her tactfulnes is one of her many assets.

NAOMI CALE

Naomi has many amiable attributes, but, oh, for those beautiful blue eyes. Her personality doesn't suffer in comparison.

ALL THE LIVELY AND

DOROTHY CAMPBELL

One doesn't have to study Dorothy to appreciate her likable traits. If she possesses any unlikable ones, Dorothy does a masterful job of concealing them.

CORINNE CRAWFORD

To Corinne we award a different type of loving cup—she shares this trophy with each and everyone of her classmates.

PAUL CROSBY

Paul is our nomination for the perpetual motion prize. Do you go to bed standing up, Paul?

PATRICK DALTON

No, that flash of "aqua" wasn't your imagination. Pat's explanation—"I was just creeping through town."

RUTH DAVIES

We can imagine what a perfect nurse Ruth will make with her endless patience and sunny disposition. Best of luck in all you do from the Class of 1952.

Ruth Davies

JOHN DE VITO

"Dirt" just can't help his jovial nature. His level head and resourcefulness have helped the Whippets many a time when the chips were down.

LOUISE DEWEY

It would take many words to properly describe Louise—beauty, brains, personality — besides all these she would make a great orator.

DOUGLAS DICK

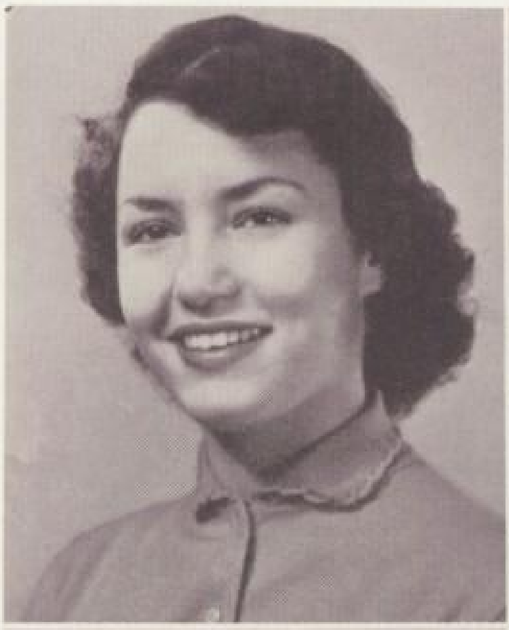
Doug's life is a series of hobbies. His varied interests keep him occupied most of the time.

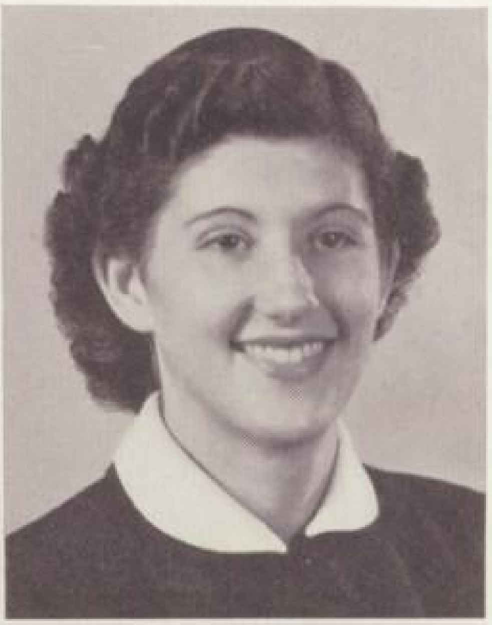
HEATED DISCUSSIONS,

SHEILA DUBUC

Calm and collected is this scholarly miss. Her efficiency and "charm of the Old South" endear her to her Shelby classmates.

Best o'luck -
Sheila



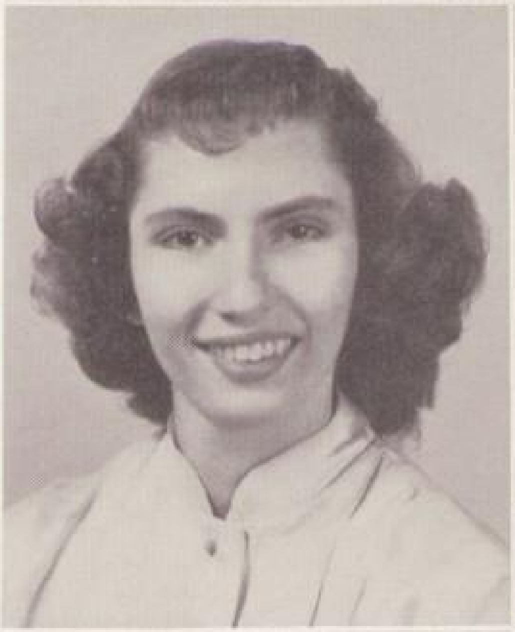


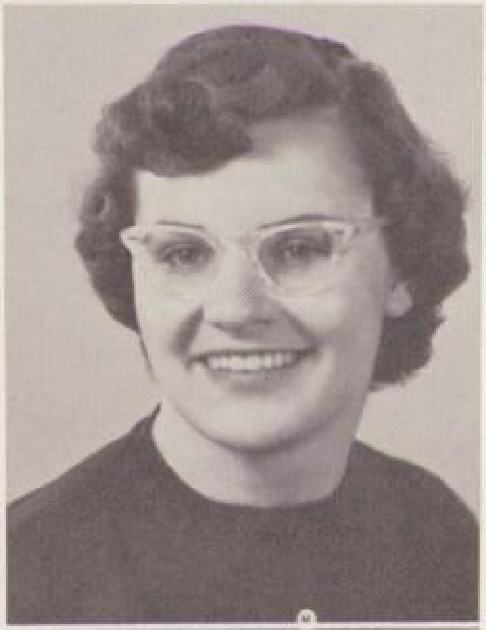
LINDA DUDENHAVER

Her musical capabilities, coupled with her inherent charm, number her among those who will achieve greatness.

ROSEMARY EBERSOLE

A true friend is loyal, trustworthy, sincere, and a joy to be around. Rosemary is one of the few who has all these qualifications.



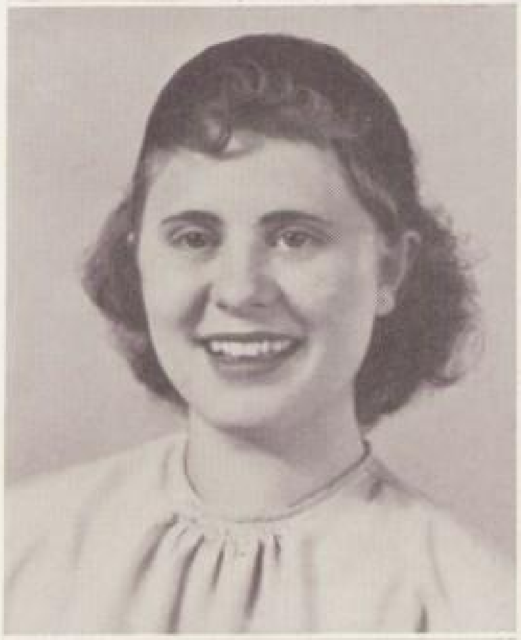


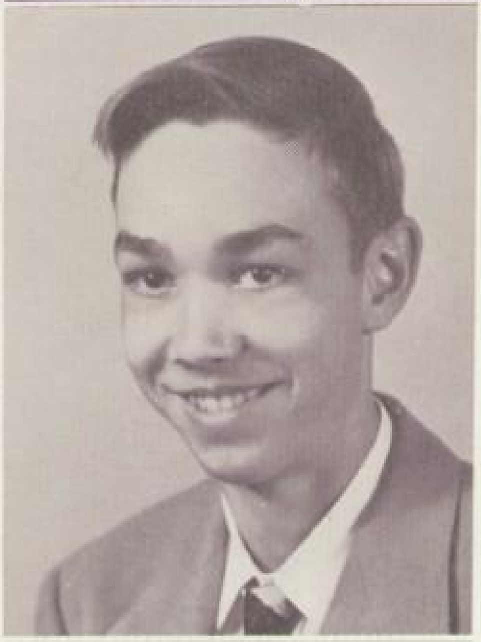
DOROTHY EMERSON

Quiet, pleasant, cooperative — just a few of the attributes of Dorothy Emerson. She will be a success in whatever she does.

MARY LOU FOUGHT

Mary Lou possesses a good sense of humor. To her life is one activity after another — with Mary Lou in each activity.



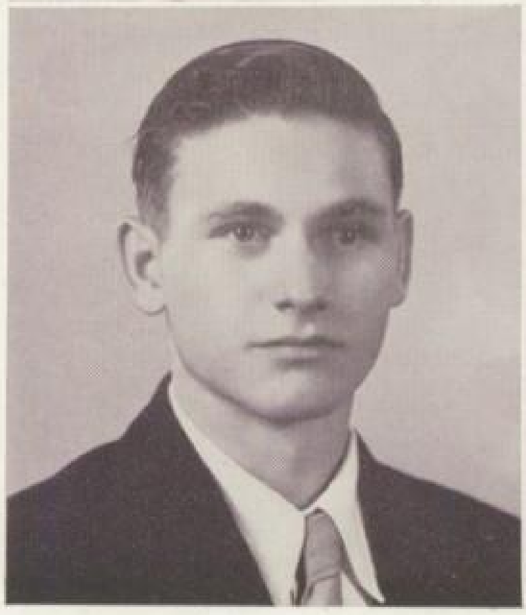


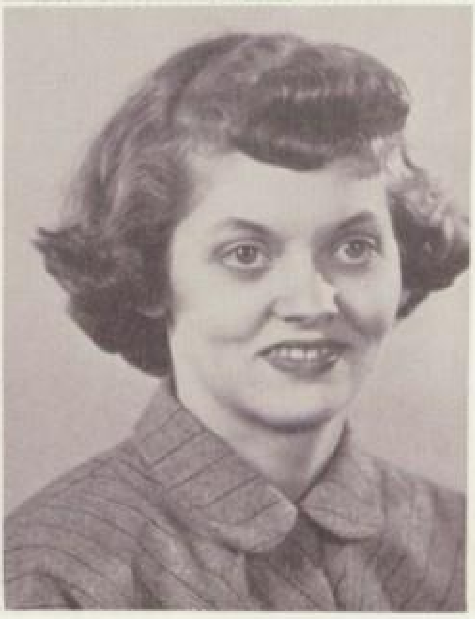
DONALD FRY

A tall lad; a quiet lad; a lad that all can see. Don is a shy lad but he is a true friend.

EDWIN FRY

Edwin likes to drive the Shelby Salesbook Company truck; he likes good times and is generally a sport of such "goings-on".





SANDRA GRAHAM

Think of poise, charm, ability, and grace — you think of Graham. She likes people and people like her.

THE HOURS SPENT IN PREPARING

PATRICIA GROSS

Seeing Pat on the gym floor might surprise many of her fellow classmates. The energy she saves by her usual quietness is not wasted.

AGNES GUTSHALL

Agnes is one of our quiet girls—who does not say more than her share of words. Nevertheless, the ones who do not know her well, are the unfortunate ones.

ETHEL GUTSHALL

Meekness appears to be characteristic of Ethel. Her friends will tell you that she is always a good sport and she is a good worker.

LOURITA HANNAFUS

Is it any wonder everyone likes "Rita"? Her sincerity is an excellent wearing quality that will always be a great asset to her.

Lourita Hannafus

RICHARD HARTMAN

There are many quiet people in our world. To this group Richard does not belong. If you are looking for a good time, this boy will not let you down.

JAMES HASPESLAGH

There is one in every class —our little Casanova. Is that what they teach you on the farm, Jim? He is a swell guy to know.

EDWIN HAWK

A boy of many talents, especially musically and scholastically. Red Skelton has nothing on him. Ed is really a riot.

Ed Hawk

GEORGE HAYS

His modesty is exceeded only by his skill on the basketball court. He should be a success in anything he attempts. Now it looks like our loss is Kroger's gain.

George Hays

FOR A CONCERT OR PLAY,

Carole LaBonte gives her all for the senior class at the candy stand. Paul agreed to buy all the candy that day.

Louise Dewey — ah, you lucky girl—surrounded by gay blades of the junior class—Ellery, Crall, and Cowman.

A busy night at the senior stand. Jane Anderson and Virginia Petrie are endeavoring to change a twenty dollar bill.

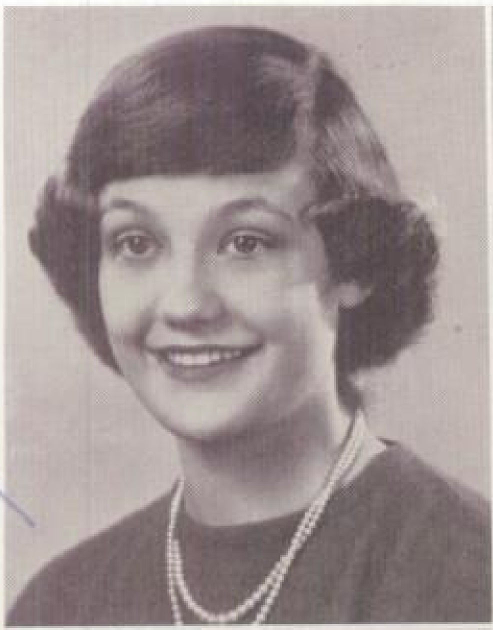
A tense moment in the trig class. Dubuc and Wymore are discussing a cosine with Payne. Terry and Yetzer are deep in thought. Hildebrant, the other member of the class, was absent that day.

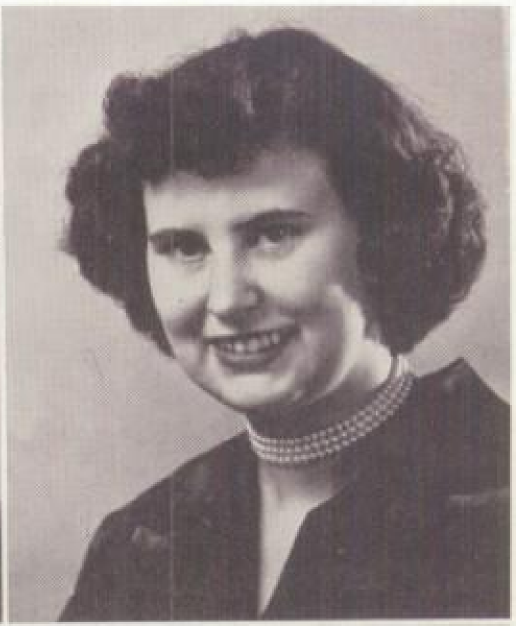
HOMEWORK AND SPECIAL

MALINDA HEINEKING

Although new at this school, Malinda has found a place for herself among her classmates. She is one of the favorite personalities at school.

Malinda Heineking



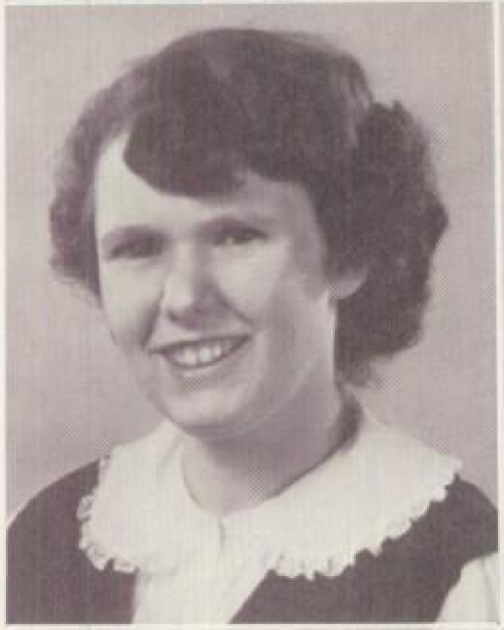


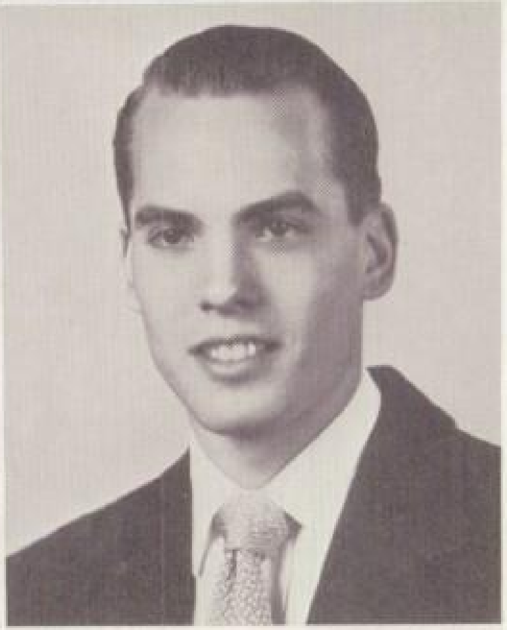
MERLENE HENRY

Often seen but not heard Merlene's charm is in her shy personality. Friendliness to those she really knows is one of her fine traits.

ELOISE HILDEBRANT

There does not seem to be anything this talented miss cannot do. Sewing, cooking, music, and her unequalled ingenuity are good examples of these qualities.



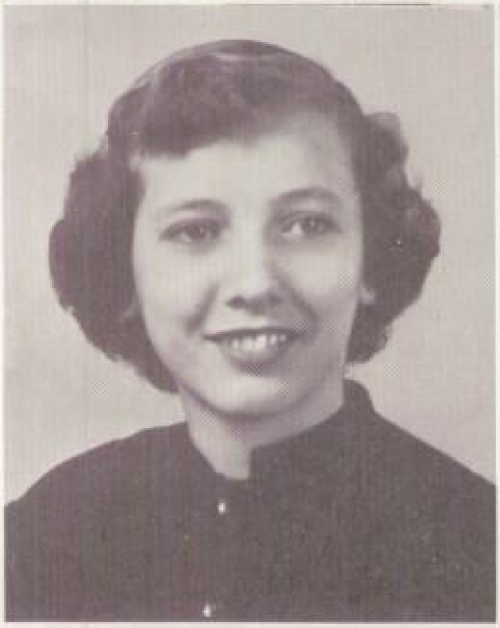


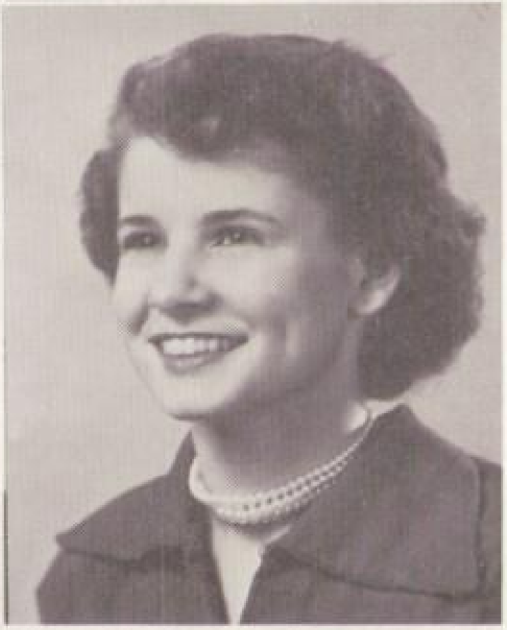
DAVID HILLARD

If there is a risk attached to any venture, whisper the fact to Dave and you have an eager companion. A happy-go-lucky fellow without a care in the world.

BETTY HOAK

Determination marks her as one who will always succeed. She has all the qualities that lead to success. We will hear from Betty.



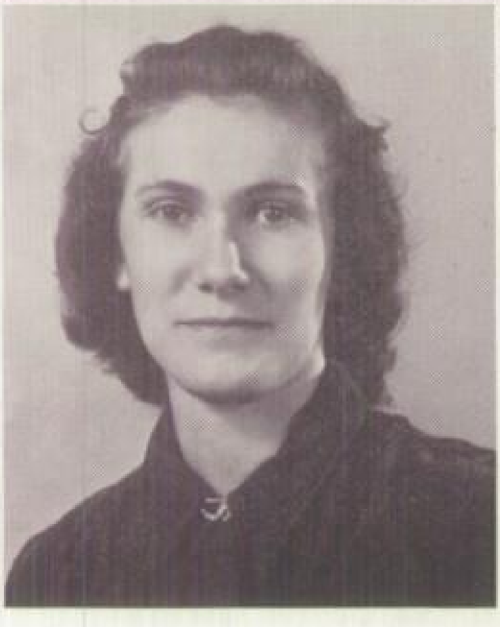


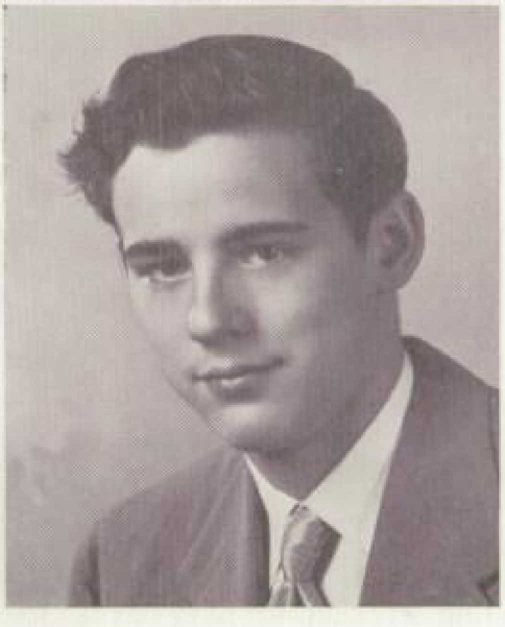
FAYE HODGES

Who hasn't seen talkative little Faye, skipping around the corridors with a happy smile on her face. Her smile and rippling laugh are so infectious that she can even "kid" the teachers with it.

JUNE IRONS

June as her name suggests is a very pleasant person. She is willing to work and she has made many friends among the members of the class of '52.





DONALD JONES

Not just another of the Jones boys—a good fellow to know. His dark eyes snap in mischief.

CLASS ASSIGNMENTS,

SANDRA JONES

This little blonde has made for herself a reputation worth more than all the money in the world. If she has any faults, we have failed to find them.

RICHARD KIRKENDALL

Krupa can't compare with Kirk! Talent such as Dick's is rare, and a personality equal to it is more rare. Best of luck in the future—you deserve it.

Dick Kirkendall

RICHARD KLINE

Dick did not stay to finish with us. We always admired those dark eyes—those mischievous eyes.

PAUL KORBAS

Give Paul a set of golf clubs and you have a happy, happy boy. We see a golf championship in the future.

AMY LOU LA BARGE

It's a long way to Williams Court but many friends (both kinds) have beaten a track to her door. Who can resist this girl with a personality plus?

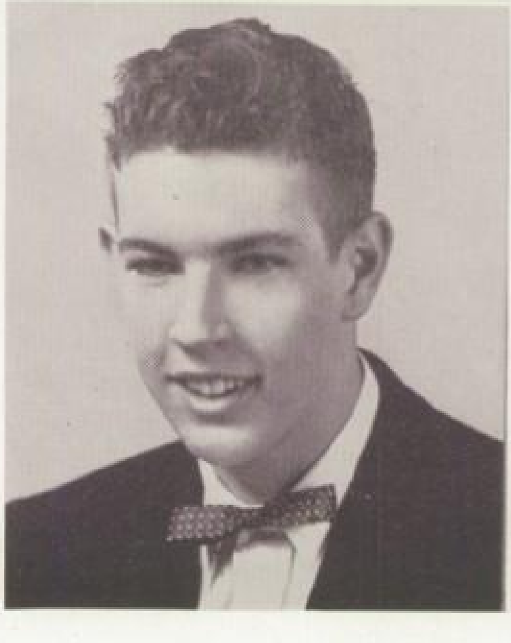
CAROLE LA BONTE

It is rare to be gifted with so much—beauty, poise, intelligence, and an outstanding personality, but Carole seems to possess them all.

WILLIAM LASER

First impressions are often deceiving. Many think that Bill is a quiet individual but we know differently. He is full of fun and spirit.

Bill Laser



DONALD LASH

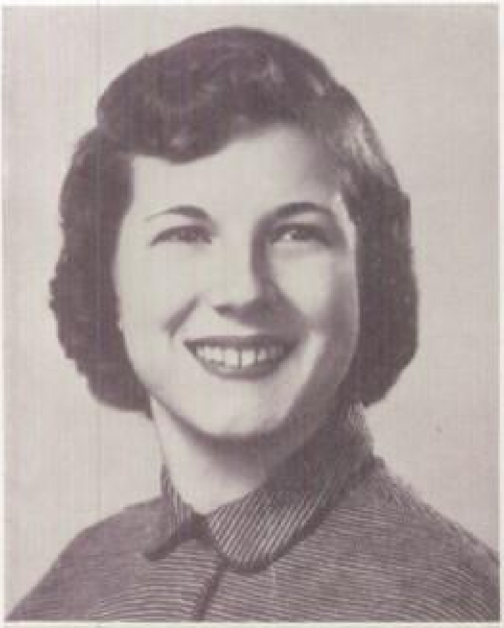
Don is a young man of few words, but he is extremely easy to know and to like. This and his willingness to work will always be great assets to him.

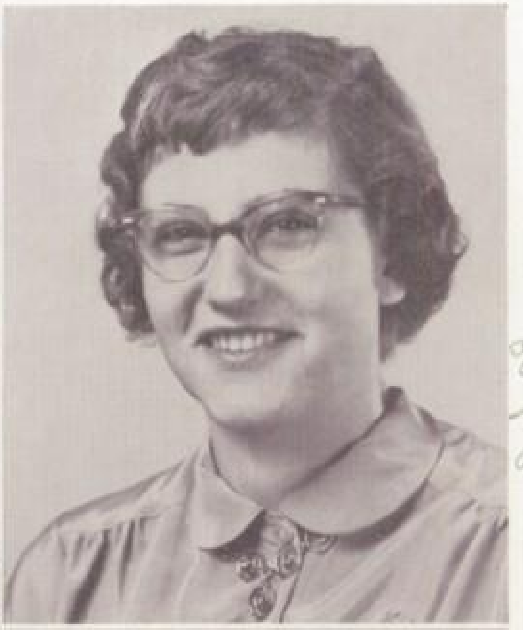
Don Lash

THE STUDY HALL WINKS

MARTHA LAUGHBAUM

We have Martha to blame for most of the write-ups in this section; however, we like her, we respect her ability, we admire her friendly nature and her desire to have many friends.





MAUREEN LEHMAN

Maureen and the band go hand in hand together. When we think of her we picture her and that big bass horn. How she masters it so well is beyond us!

There's a future in band kid.
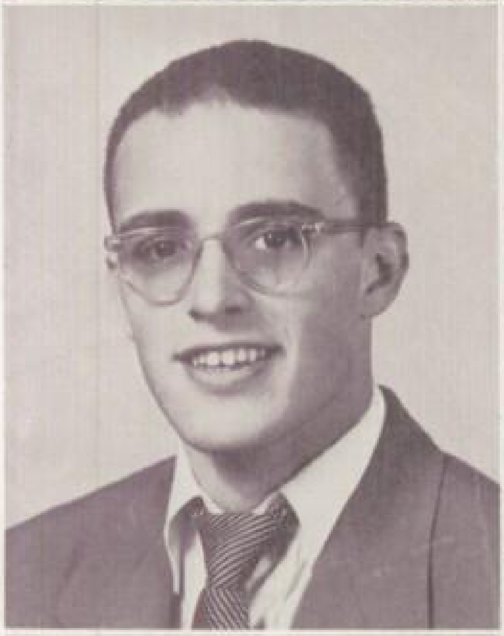
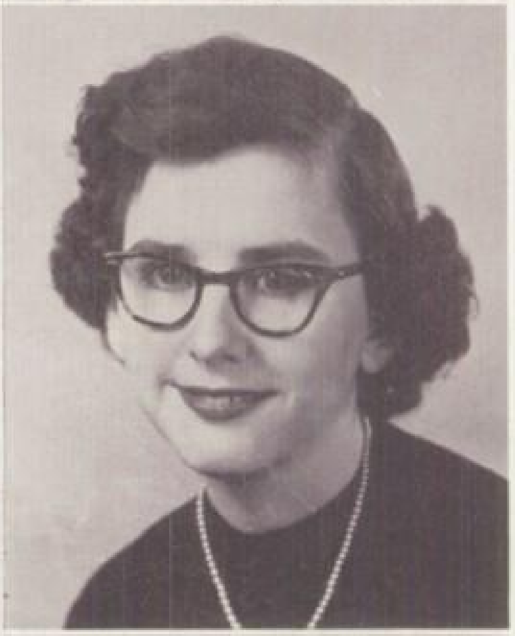
Lots of luck
Maureen

GENE LEVERETT

Oh—those innocent eyes! A joke, a laugh, or a trick to perform—Gene is always there. We are glad to have him in our class.



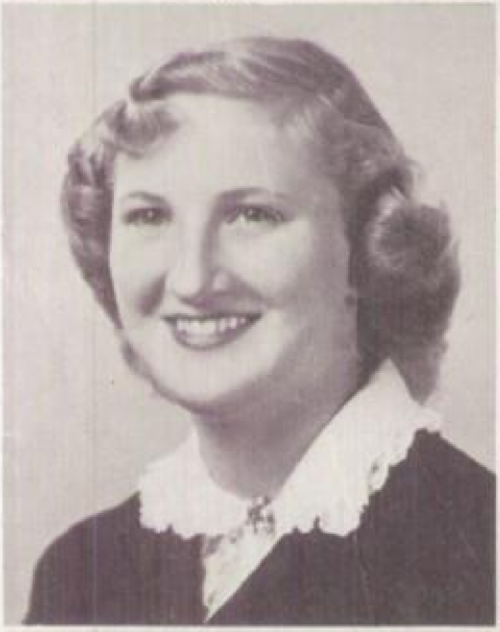


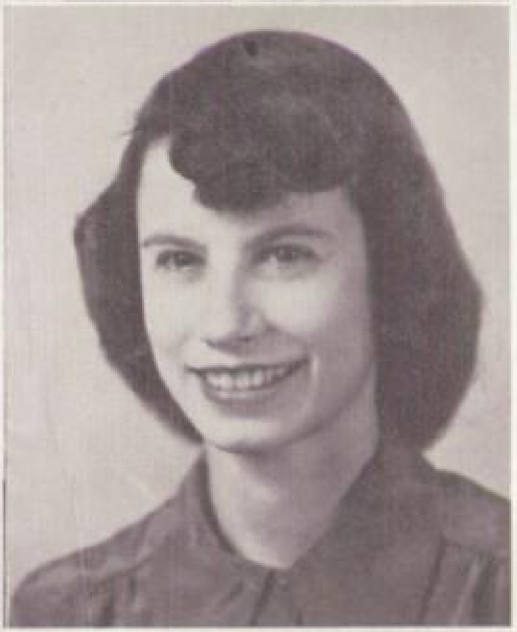
MARY LOU LIGHT

Light — Light — She is a light for all her friends. A light that is illuminated by kindness, a friendly spirit, and a desire to help others.

BARBARA LOESCHER

"Babs" is always in a hurry. She has developed quite a culinary art at the local Coffee Shop. Boys—here is a good cook.



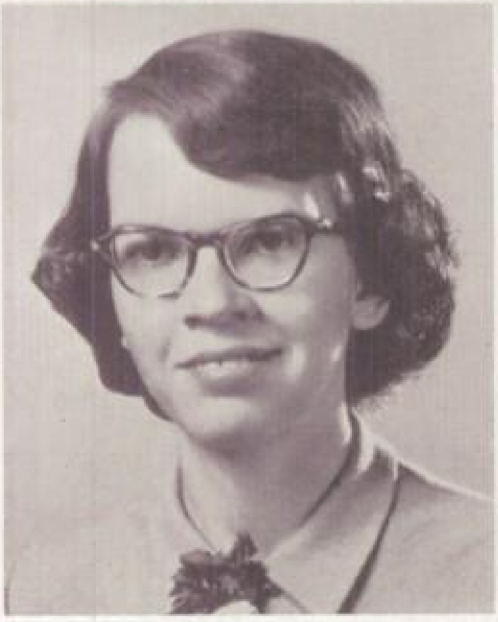


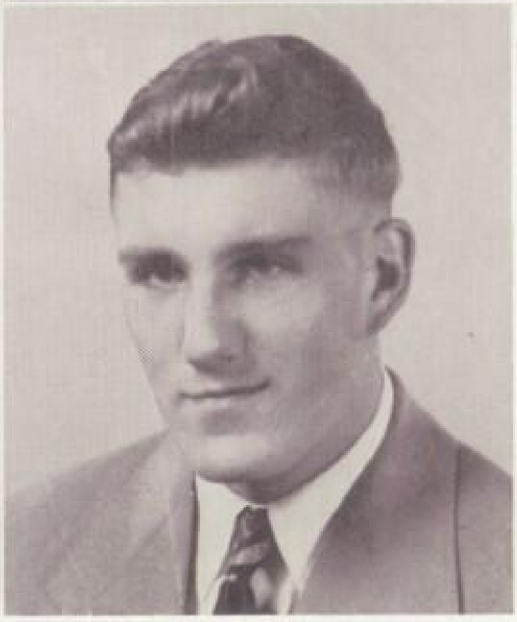
SALLY Mc GILL

Words alone cannot do justice to Sally. She is an excellent student — calm and collected—and always ready to lend a helping hand.

PATRICIA Mc LAUGHLIN

Pat's ambition is to grow, but we love her as she is. She appears to be a demure little miss, but her friends will assure you that she is always ready for a good time.



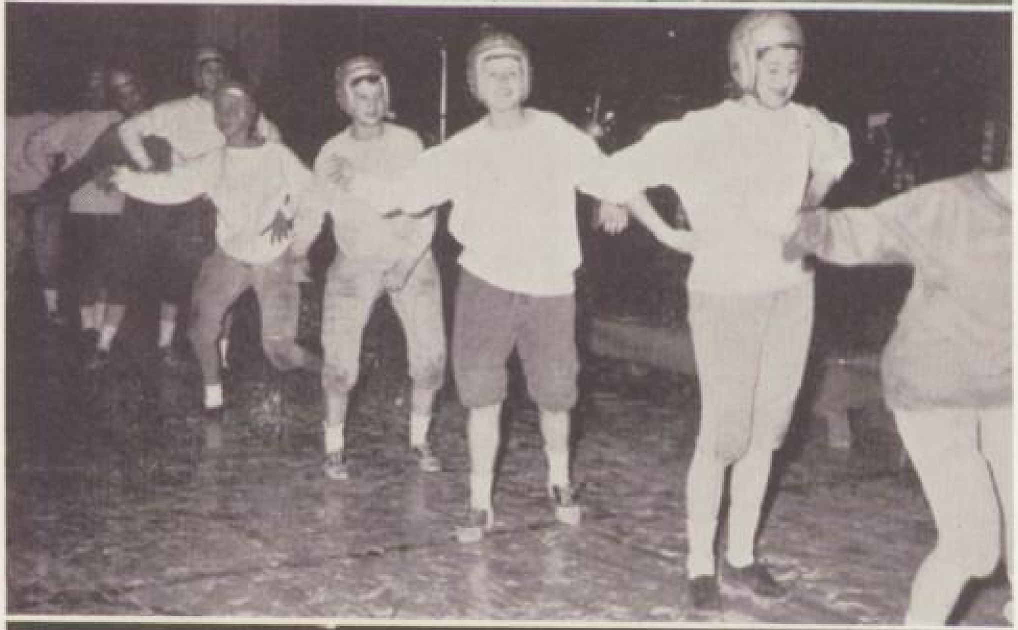


WILLIAM MANAUGH

Why didn't someone will Bill an alarm clock last year? But after all, what's punctuality when you are as good-natured and happy as this young fellow.

AND THE LIBRARY PATTER,

Our senior class advisor telling one of his famous jokes to his charming wife.



It isn't the Ballet Russe or the Ballet Theatre but the BALLET DE FOOTBALL. This was part of the entertainment at the senior dance.

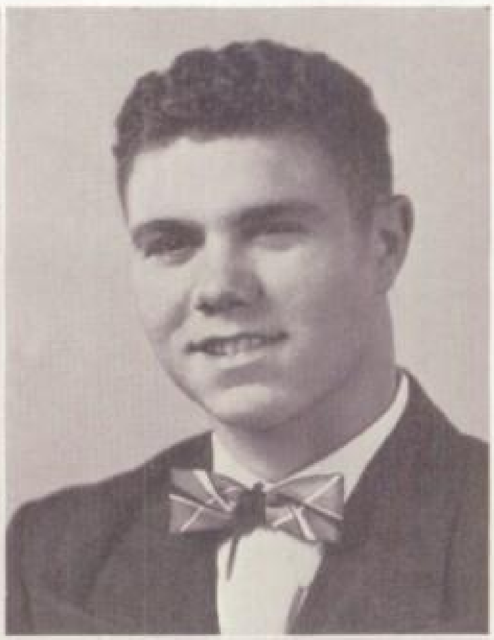
Linda Dudenhaver alias Ma Kettle performing at the senior dance. It was one of those rare presentations of down on the farm or maybe way-out West in Wyoming.

The Queen speaks and we all listen. Fred White serves as M. C. and presents the Queen and her lovely attendants.

ALL THE LIFTING CHEERS

DORIS MARSHALL

Evidently Doris is a firm believer in "Safety First" for she always thinks twice before she speaks. We know that she will succeed in a big way.



GEORGE METZGER

George likes school but there are a few things that he likes better — women, his car, and good jokes (??), and good times in general.

RAYMOND MILLER

Ray is one of those boys who is apt to surprise you in later life. If we had known him better here, perhaps we would have known this long before.

WAYNE MILLIRON

Blushing can be so inconvenient at times—just ask Bud! But if all fellows who blushed could play football like our star halfback, Mr. Wilkins would have a jubilee.

ARLENE MONN

It is difficult to change schools and leave all one's friends. Arlene soon had many friends here that made her feel she had always gone to Shelby Hi.

JOYCE MOON

There's one in every class, but Joyce tops them all! She is unanimously the class clown who no one could help liking. She is always full of life and full of pep.

CAROL SUE MORSE

The song—Lovely to Look At—could have been written exclusively for Sue. Speaking of songs — Sue might be "The Madame With the Cutest Personality".

WILLIAM NOTHACKER

Bill may be small in size now but certainly not small in the list of class favorites. He has made quite a name for himself here.

AT THE OLD FOOTBALL GAMES,

SHIRLEY OLDFIELD
The class of '52 was very happy to welcome Shirley back to Shelby. We hope that the feeling was mutual.

Shirley
Oldfield

JOY PATRICK
It is a joy to know Joy. The sparkle in her eyes and an infectious laugh seem to reflect her personality. People with good dispositions always get ahead.

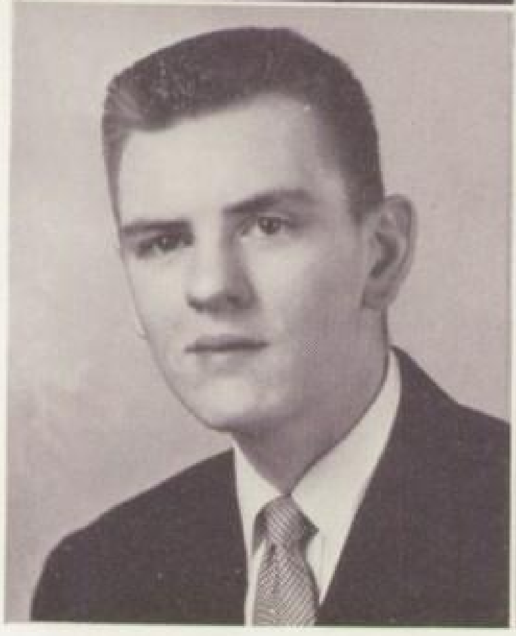
DONALD PAULO
Don is destined for success if he manages his life as well as he managed the Varsity football teams.

KENNETH PAYNE
A specialist in two fields —athletics and ? ? ? His outstanding scholastic record cannot be ignored nor can his manly physique be forgotten.

VIRGINIA PETRIE
There's not one in every class. Ginny is an extra special character. We would not trade her for anything in the world.

DARRELL PUGH
If each and everyone of us had tried as hard as Darrell throughout our school days, our teachers would ask for little more.

ROGER PUGH
To Roger we wish future success and happiness. We ask a small favor—don't ever forget your music. It has been a great source of enjoyment to your friends in the past.



MARY REITH
Mary is another quiet member of our class, but what would we do without someone to keep our exuberant spirits from bubbling over. Whatever she intends to do in the future, we are sure she will come out on top.

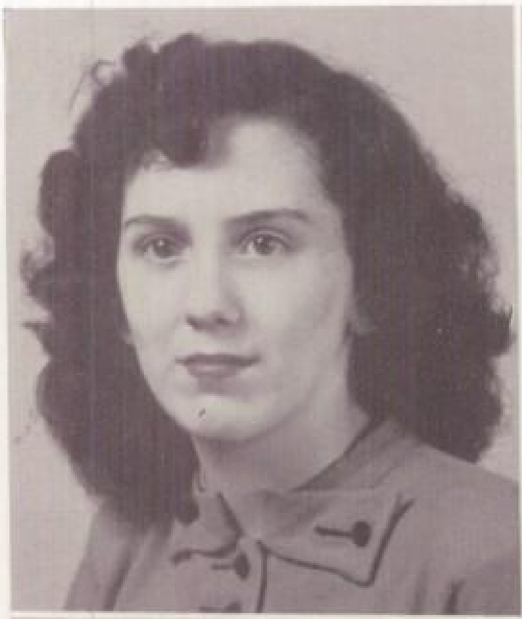
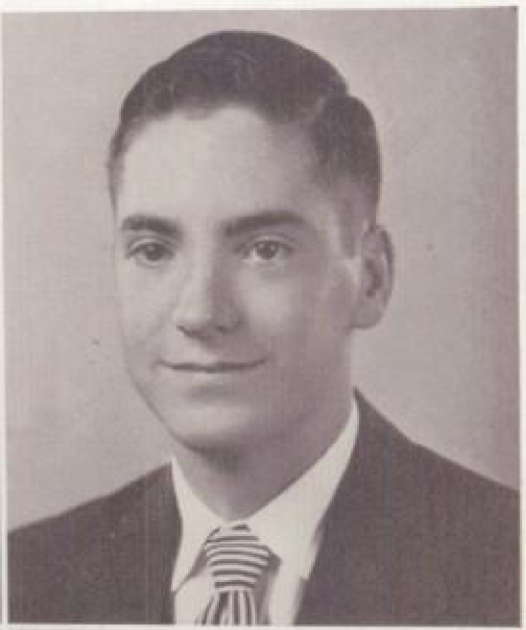
THOSE GREAT TENSE MOMENTS

GENEVA ROBERTS

Geneva has an extremely likeable disposition and a way with all her fellow-students. She also has a very bright stone on one finger.



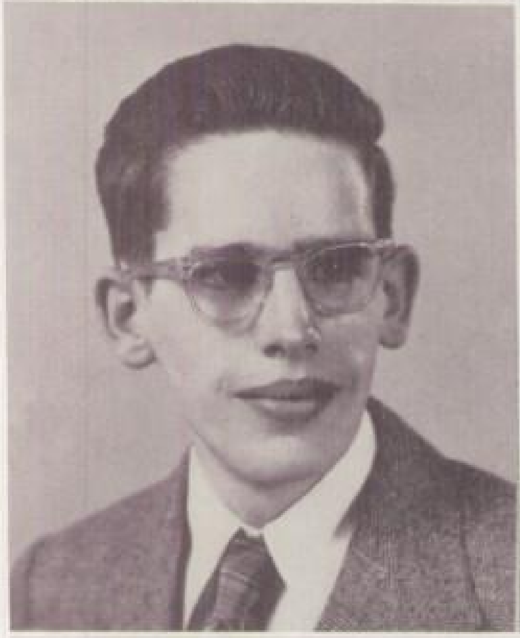


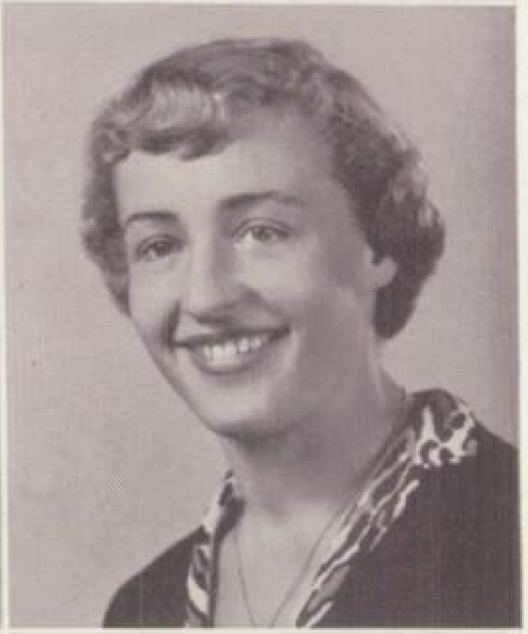
SAM ROUSH

Man about town and country. Hunting and fishing are his country sports. What about his town interests? "Rugged But Right" was written for him.

ROBERT SHULER

While some are never happy unless they are in the limelight, Bob is very contented being quiet and expressing himself by his art.



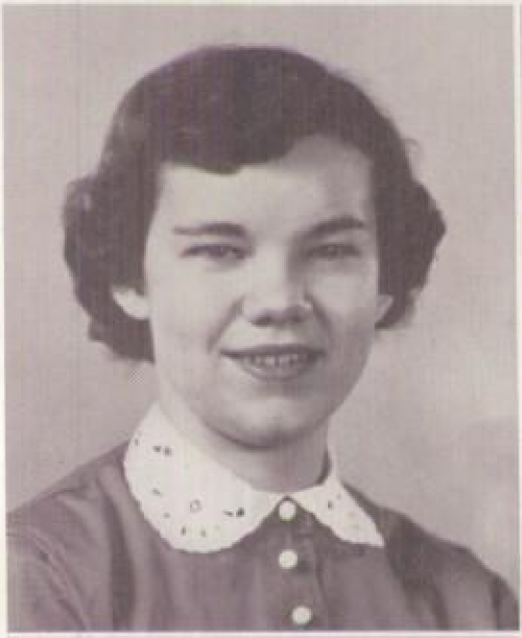


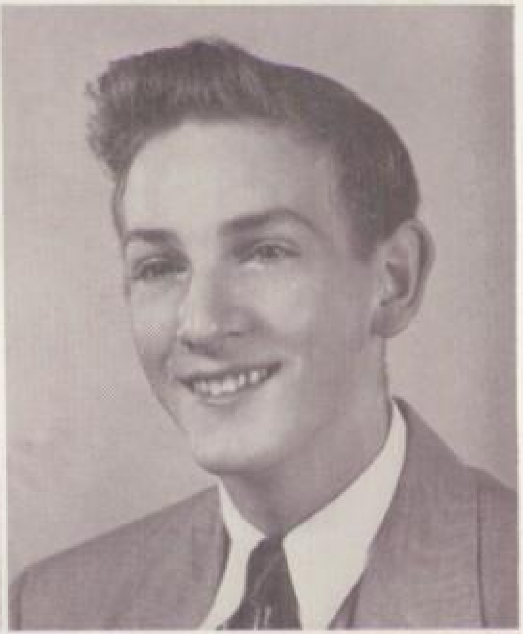
JUNADELE SMITH

Never a dull moment clearly characterizes Judy's personality. A leader in all girls' athletics and sports and a very clever life guard—yes, sir.

JANET SOUTHARD

Scowling is certainly a word unknown to Janet. With her pleasant smile and unaffected manners, she has won many friends who regard her very highly.



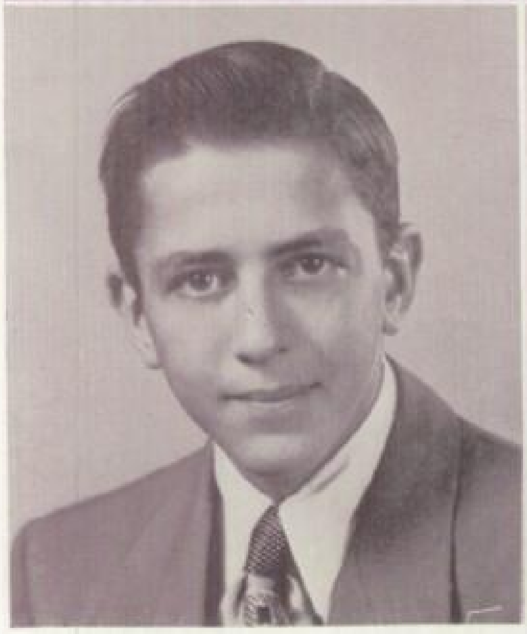


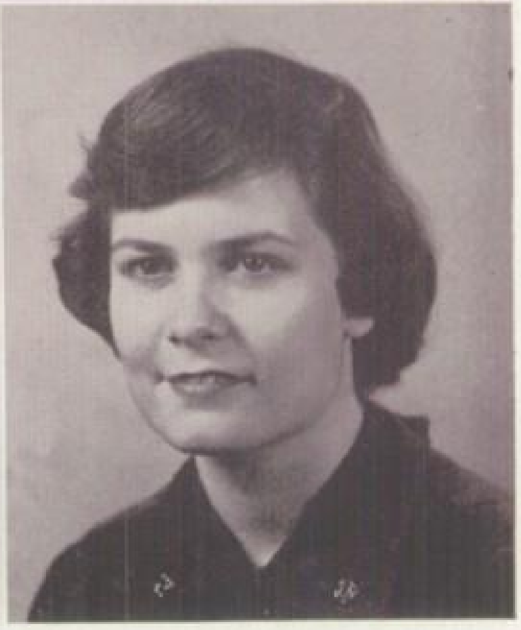
LEO SPANGLER

Although not one of the most noted in our class, Leo will be remembered by all for his sincere and friendly manners.

DARWIN STINE

A desire to talk and to laugh — characteristics of this carefree lad. His life will be one of happiness and gaiety and perhaps love.





PATRICIA STOUT

Unlimited are her many attributes. These make Pat one who is not easily forgotten. She has a gay spirit and certainly enjoys a good time.

AT THE BASKETBALL GAMES.

Hot-rod, hot time, and Halloween. They really were dressed-up for the parade and the photographer just happened to be there.

Miss Efficiency. Judy Bricker takes over the office just before the lunch hour.

Speed demons at heart. Some type with speed and make no errors and others just seem to type. By the picture this day must be "Monday".

Money-mad seniors. The senior stand at the noon hour is one way to "make money" for the class parties and the yearbook.

WE SHALL NEVER FORGET OUR DATES,

WAYNE SUTTER

A little man of great possibilities. "Popeye" shares his cheerfulness with all his many friends and especially with Darwin.

DON SWANGER

Don likes fun and fun is part of his makeup. He looks over a little school work; he admires a charming little girl; he has many pals.

JANE SWARTZ

Jane is Joan's twin sister. She likes to sing and dance. Her dark eyes display an interest in fun and frolic. Her friends are many.

JOAN SWARTZ

Joan is Jane's twin sister. She has taken an interest in a local store and some say in a sailor lad too.

DATHA BYRD TEEAR

One of the few in the class who has her future already definitely planned. We hope the best is in store for her.

KENNETH TERRY

Bucyrus' loss is Shelby's gain. Kenny not only displayed agility in basketball but good sportsmanship and determination. His attitude matches his altitude.

Kenny Terry

CHARLOTTE VAN NESS

Van may be her nickname. Her ability to make friends is outstanding. We admire her courage and her desire to go ahead.

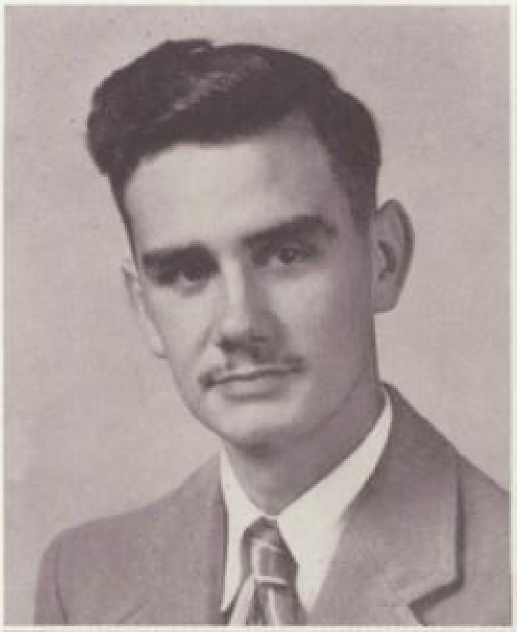
KENNETH WARD

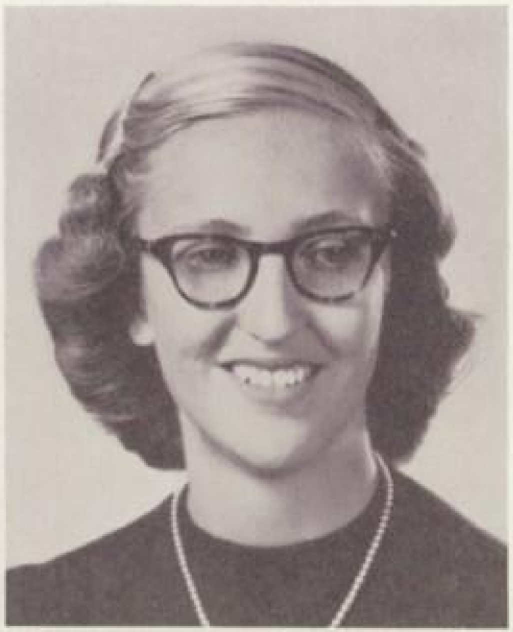
Kenneth is always so quiet but he seems to get around. We have seen him with a cute little trick. Wonder what they are saying?

AND OUR OWN GRADUATION AT LAST

ROBERT WARD

Bob is Kenny's brother and they are the Fire Chief's sons. I'll bet they liked to (and did) ride the fire engine when they were kids. Bob has sported a mustache.





PATRICIA WOLFORD

Everything Pat undertakes she does well. Knowledge, skill, and efficiency seem to be her three key words to a very promising career.

BERNADINE WORKMAN

Bunny's beautiful voice has been envied by many as she sings her way into people's hearts. Without a doubt, she will have a very rich life.

JEAN WYMORE

Many quiet people are more interesting than the best talkers and Jean is a perfect example. Quiet and unassuming, one cannot help admiring her.

JOHN YETZER

John may seem quiet at first, but when you get him "wound up" you can expect anything to happen —and it usually does!

RICHARD YETZER

There's never a dull moment when Whitey is around. You can always rely on him to be a source of fun.

JOANNE YOHN

If all of us were as studious as Joanne, wouldn't the teachers rejoice? She has shown that doors of wisdom are never shut.

ACTIVITIES

Activities at Shelby High have always been considered a vital part of the school life for the high school students. It has been hoped that all students would enter into some planned activity each year and thus become members of social, musical, dramatic, and administrative groups. In this picture we find Edwin Hawk, Lourita Hannafus, and Linda Dudenhaver coming through the auditorium doors from a band practice session in the auditorium. Each of these seniors has been a member of the band for six years in addition to taking a very active part in other school activities.

JUNIORS GIVE CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN

On the nights of November 8 and 9, "Cheaper by the Dozen" was the play presented by the junior class under the direction of Mrs. Klopfenstein, better known as Miss "K".

This is the sixth year of the organization of "El Circulo Español," and the first year for Mr. Potts, our advisor.

Soon after the first meeting officers were elected, and later put officially into office: president, Dick Kirkendall; vice president, Gary Milliron; secretary, Sandra Graham; treasurer, Margaret Jackson.

This year Mr. Potts helped the club in drawing up its first constitution. A committee chosen from each class ratified its principles and it was finally put to a mass vote and passed.

For one day of the school year the new Spanish Club members are the most outstanding students in the school. This happened to be Monday, the eighth of October. These juniors spent a good deal of time avoiding the senior members and bowing to the ones they couldn't escape—"a sus ordines!" That night, at the Girl Scout house in the park, those new members were put through water, fire, cracker crumbs, water glass, and cooked macaroni. The initiation was beautifully completed with a candlelight ceremony, and the repeating of the oath.

As these students became full fledged members, they began to take part in the activities of the club and to lend a helping hand. First was the annual formal Christmas dance, the "Snowball," with all the planning, preparations, worrying, rushing, decorating, and secrecy that go toward the makings of a successful dance. But the night of December twenty-second brought to a climax all the hustle-bustle, and compensated fully for all the hard work. The gym was beautiful; the color scheme being green and white, with a huge wreath holding the place of honor as the center of the intricate ceiling. Murals of the "Night Before Christmas"—the theme of the dance—outlined the walls, and a large tree occupied a conspicuous corner. All were very pleased with Wayne Martin's orchestra and the club deserves a great deal of credit for the smooth manner with which they executed the first of the two most important dances of the school year.

STANDING: V. VanNess, S. Harbaugh, E. Hildebrant, M. Clark, M. Patrick, D. Henson, R. Winans, L. Dewey, S. Whitney, E. Workman, J. Holtz, G. Metzger.

THESPIANS THRILL AUDIENCES

For a comparatively new organization, the Thespians can boast of numerous accomplishments. Four years ago Thespian Troupe 939 was established in Shelby High School under the supervision of Miss Ruth Kellermyer. Although this year her name was slightly changed to Mrs. Klopfenstein, she is still our same "K" who has done an excellent piece of work with the club and dramatics as a whole.

At the first meeting Dick Kirkendall was elected to the presidency, assisted by Bud Milliron as vice-president and Martha Laughbaum as secretary-treasurer.

First on the Club's agenda was the formal initiation ceremonies, held in the Girl Scout Little House. The fourteen new initiates increased the enrollment from fourteen to twenty-eight members.

After considerable planning the Thespians were ready to sponsor a dance, "Stage Door Canteen." However, Nature did not co-operate and it was altered because of high waters.

Each year the club looks forward to sponsoring an all-school play. The diligent members put forth all their efforts to make this play a success—and it always is. In March, a well-presented all-school play, "You Can't Take It With You" brought many a chuckle from the audience.

The club's annual trip to Cleveland to see a Broadway play is always looked forward to by all and is not easily forgotten. In fact, being a Thespian is a wonderful experience that each member never forgets.

BOYS'-GIRL'S STATE REPRESENTATIVES

William Laser, Kenneth Payne, Richard Kirkendall, Edwin Hawk, John DeVito, Wayne Milliron, Louise Dewey, Joseph Bodkin, Sally Harbaugh.

Each year the American Legion Post of Shelby, along with other civic organizations of the city sponsors a group of boys and a group of girls to represent Shelby at Buckeye Boys' State and Buckeye Girls' State. On June 15, the boys converged on Camp Perry to begin their indoctrination into the fundamental principles of practical government. Immediately upon arrival each was assigned to a different city and was besieged by ambitious office seekers soliciting votes. This mythical 49th state had for its citizens 900 boys, who were divided into four counties having five cities each. Each citizen ran for any office he chose. After some vigorous (and sometimes highly entertaining) campaigning, each was elected or appointed to office. It was a politician's paradise. Into each day was crammed a hypothetical month's work. The system of allowing the boys to form and operate their own government aided greatly in helping all understand the basic principles and working of democratic government. Upon returning home the boys all expressed their appreciation to the American Legion for the privilege of attending this most entertaining of schools.

Girls' State was held at Capitol University in Columbus, Ohio from June 17 to June 24.

Each voiced the hope that more Shelby students may attend Buckeye Boys' and Girls' State.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVES

The 1951-52 Student Council, the 11th since its founding at Shelby, performed their duties as well as any of the past councils under the supervision of Mrs. Yetzer, faculty advisor, and the officers: George Hays, president; Kenny Payne, vice-president; Lois Scheerer, secretary; and Corinne Crawford, treasurer.

The council has altered its elections somewhat this year from past years because of the fact that they have duties to perform the first week of school. They are in charge of all student elections including cheerleaders, the homecoming queen and her attendants.

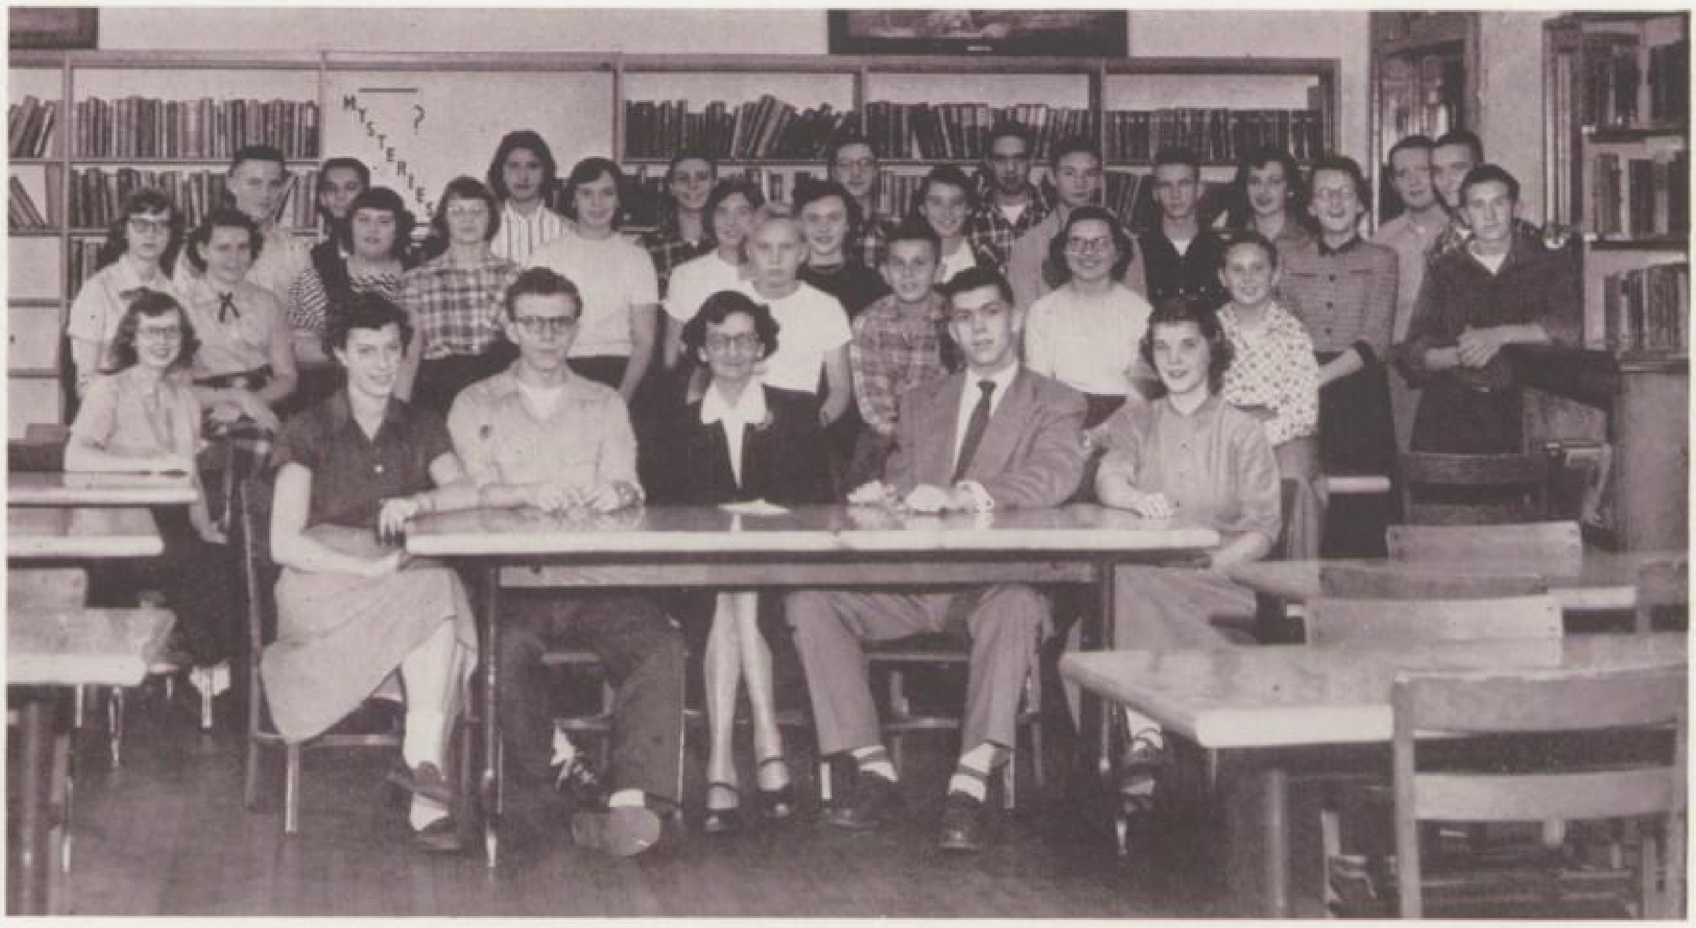
A few members of the council started their work even before the school year began. These people go out about a month before school starts to acquire ads for the football programs which is the only source of income other than the selling of the programs at the games.

The money earned by the council is used for sending flowers at the time of bereavement in the families of students, the sponsoring of auditorium programs, the payment of awards given for citizenship and courtesy and various other awards given on recognition day.

The council consists of one representative from each homeroom and the officers of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, and any past presidents. The seventh grade representatives are elected during the 1st six weeks of school.

Aside from its many other duties the council is given the task of collecting money for the Red Cross and other such organizations. The council also assists with the school calendar.

The new Student Council assumes its tasks of the year immediately after Recognition Day of the current school year.



FRONT ROW (left to right): Lois Scheerer, George Hays, Mrs. Yetzer, Kenny Payne, Corinne Crawford. F. H. A. TRIES MODEL KITCHEN

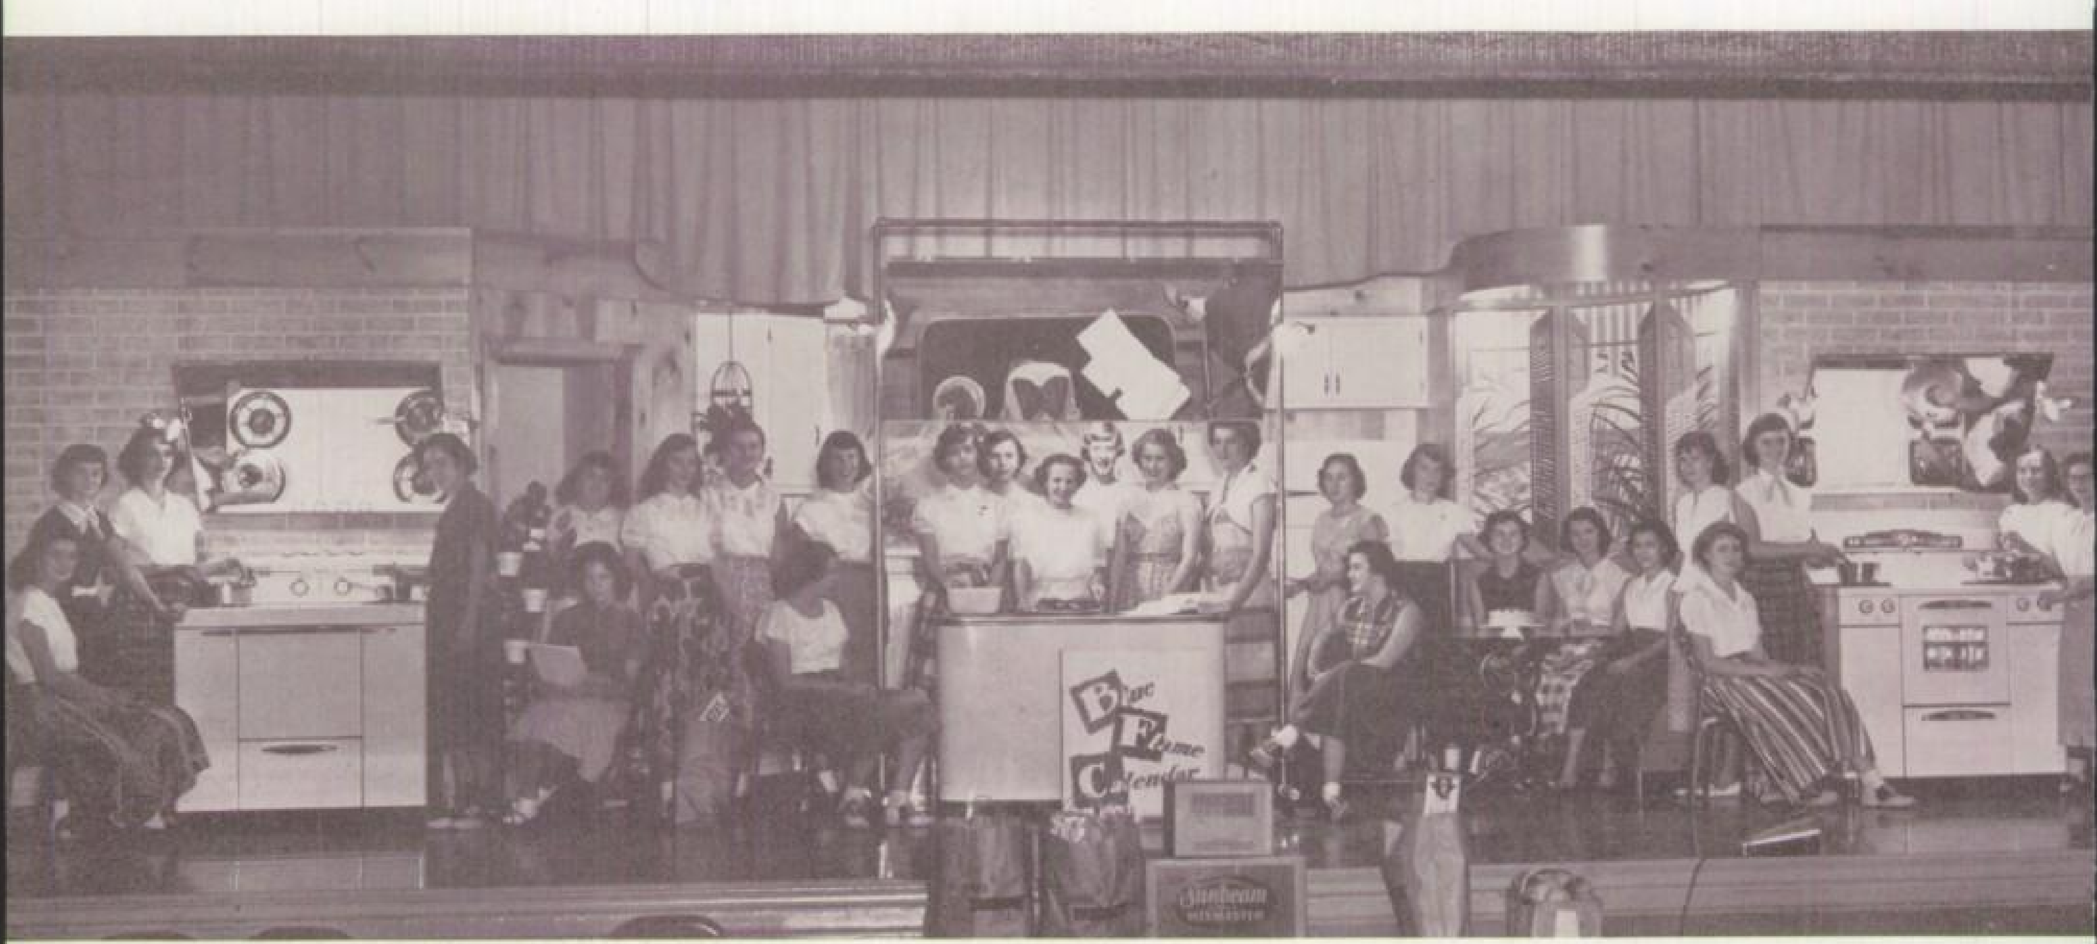
P. Kendrew, E. Holland, C. Whistler, P. Nelson, A. Marshall, P. Alexander, J. Swartz, J. Pfahler, S. Fee, D. Henson, D. Marshall, M. Pugh, M. Lea, Mrs. Phillips, Sally Baird, D. Teear, M. McKinney, B. Milliron, M. Waines, B. Myers, M. E. Smith, H. Stump, F. Ball, J. Cowman, D. Gremling, Thelma Workman.



The election of officers was the initial event of a busy year for these busy girls. The outcome of this election found as president, Doris Marshall; vice-president, Sally Baird; secretary, Mariella Smith; treasurer, Martha Waines; historian, Hazel Stump; parliamentarian, Beverly Myers; and as news reporter, Janice Cowman. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Baird were again selected to serve as club mother and father. Mrs. Phillips was the advisor and she was assisted by the two honorary members, Miss Leora Kuhn, and Miss Ruth Stroup.

A formal initiation of new members was held for the 24 new members, followed by a tea which was served to the girls and their mothers.

A package was sent to Korea and a combined bake sale and rummage sale were two of the projects that were undertaken by the girls. They were also privileged to have Miss Betty Newton speak at one of their meetings. At another meeting, the initiation of the Shiloh chapter of the F.H.A. was held.

At the dance "Stairway to Your Heart" which was co-sponsored by the F.H.A. and the F.F.A. Miss Doris Marshall reigned as "Queen of Hearts" with Don Swanger who was crowned King.

F.F.A.—TAKE A BOW!

STANDING (left to right): Dwight Hartman, Jim Bricker, Richard Tallman, James Holtz, Sam Rousch, Fred White, James Haspeslagh, Donald Paulo, Thomas Shepperd, Don Swanger, David Horner, and Mr. J. A. Shank.
ON THE TRACTORS: Richard Hartman and Edwin Fry.

Tractors were loaned through the courtesy of Ollie Cline Service and Wagoner Implement Store.

The newest organization for Shelby High boys was the Future Farmers of America which was started this fall under the supervision of Mr. J. A. Shank, who is vocational agriculture instructor for the school.

A new annex is being constructed to the high school building and this will house the agriculture department and the music department of the school. It is anticipated that the building will be completed before the school year is over.

The lads who are enrolled in the vocational agriculture courses are permitted to join the F.F.A. which follows the pattern as set forth by the state for such organizations. Fred White was named to be the first president and he has had to organize the group and develop plans for the Shelby group.

The group meets regularly throughout the school year and also during the summer months to discuss the various projects that are part of the course. In addition they meet with other F.F.A. groups of the county and surrounding counties and have interesting programs and parties.

The Shelby F.F.A. promises to be a most active organization for Shelby High lads and the SCARLET S takes this opportunity to salute this new group.

BAND THRILLS FOOTBALL CROWDS

The Shelby football fans were again given a thrill at each half-time performance when the snappy WHIPPET MARCHING BAND and its five charming majorettes came high-stepping on the field doing their fancy steps and intricate maneuvers. Each program was centered around one main theme, which was planned by the director, Mr. Somerville, and the unique blacklight scenes under the direction of Mrs. Klopfenstein, and the band dances were then planned to fit with the theme for the evening.

The band acquired its fame and attraction after many long, hard hours of work. The band met throughout the summer months and rehearsed at least one evening a week. On those hot—sultry evenings the members first became acquainted with the work that was to be done for the coming year.

Besides the football games the band had to prepare for the annual festival which is held each year in the month of May, for the contests, and for the concerts.

The "Band Mothers" group did much to encourage the band members and the directors. Their will to work will do much for the Shelby band in the years to come.

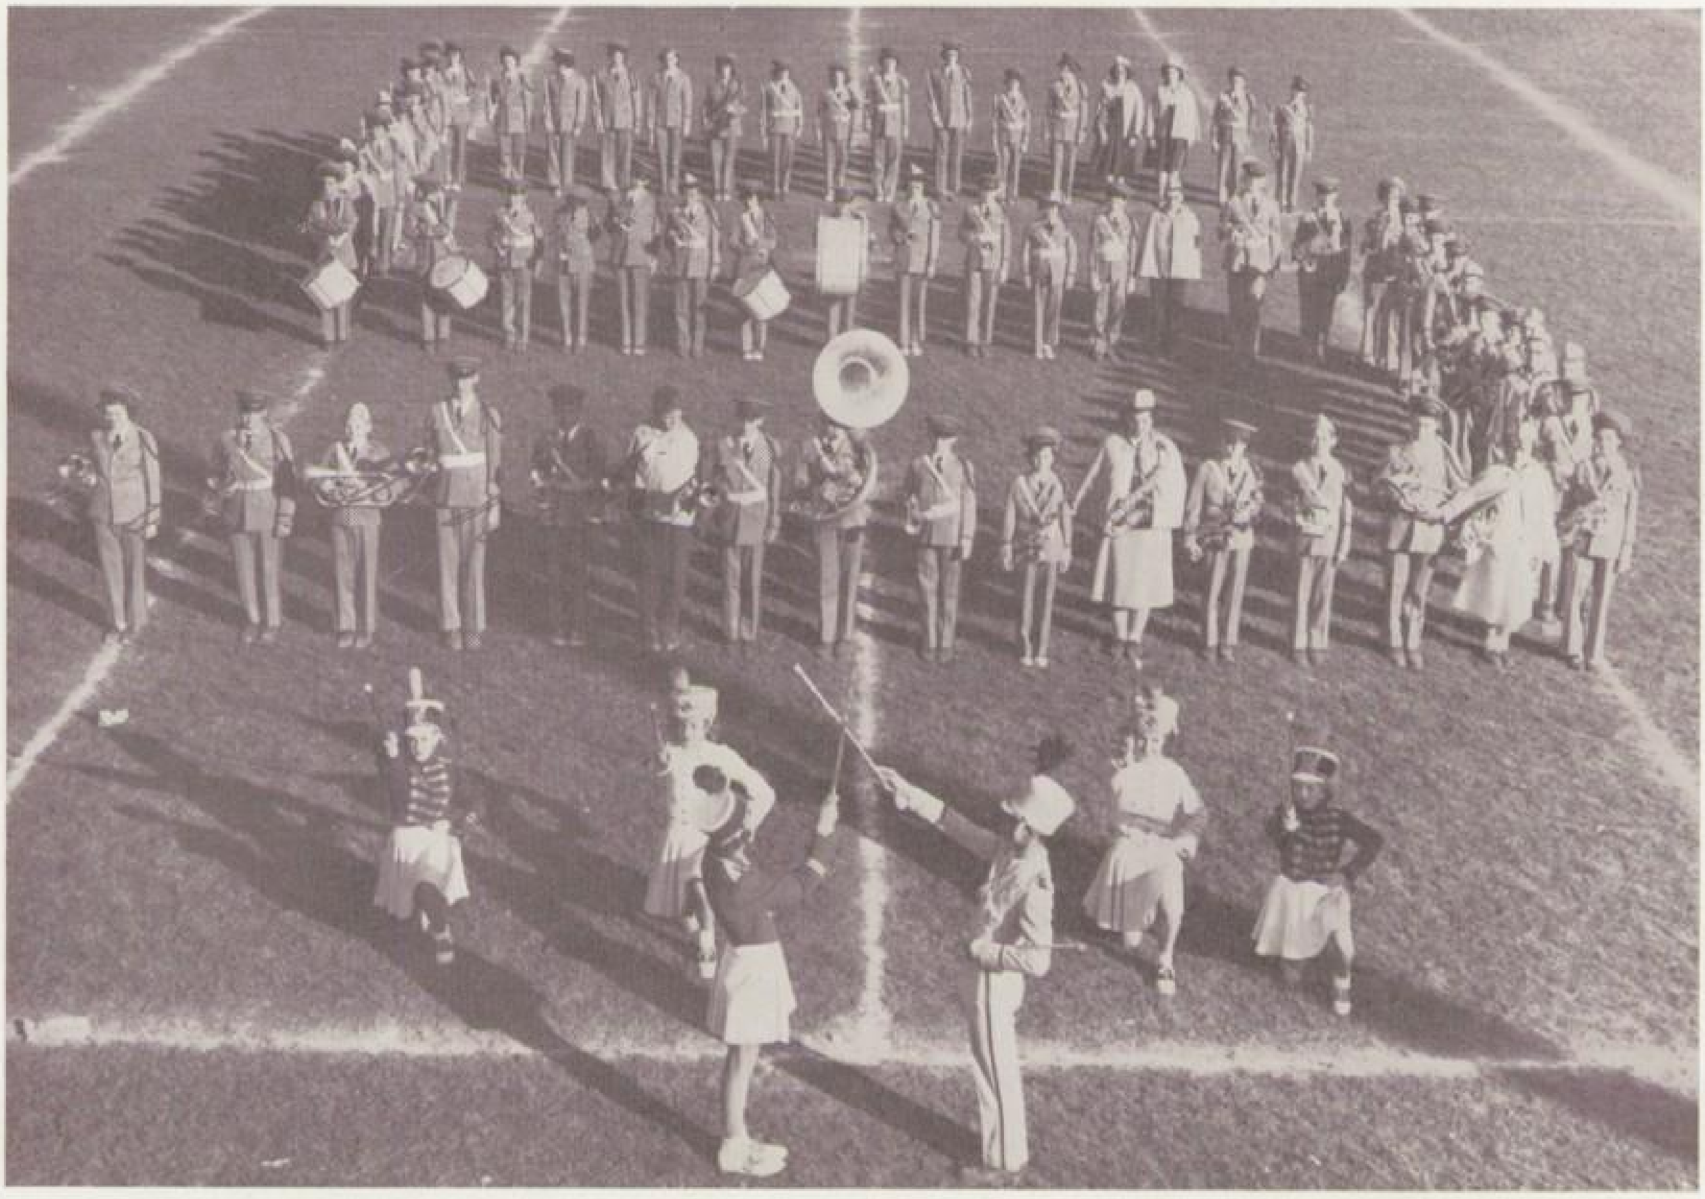
IT TAKES WORK TO BE A BAND LEADER.

All fun and no work can be said of the majorettes and Head Drum Major. It has been the policy of the band that to be a majorette or drum major one must be a full fledged band member. So day after day it's practice with the band, then as a group of six, and at home each one practices alone.

After a hard week's work, the big Friday night game finally arrives. Those snappy uniforms that stand out so well on the gridiron aren't the warmest outfits ever invented. And have you had the experience of attempting to strut on a muddy field, or on ground covered with ruts and holes in the most unexpected places? These six students can give a detailed description of each major and minor catastrophe.

During the performance none of these things is apparent to the spectators. Their job is to entertain the crowd. May we say "congratulations" on a job well done.

JUNIOR BAND . . . PREPARES FOR THINGS TO COME . . .



The Junior Band is the final link in the training program in the system of progressive musical advancement practiced at Shelby High School. Under the able direction of Mr. Braden, these future Senior Band members learn all the proper skills and habits vital to membership in Shelby's Senior Band. It is the hot-house for talent needed to replace those members of the senior band who graduate.

Each individual is carefully watched and supervised, and those who show the greatest promise are placed in the Senior Band.

The Junior Marching Band performs at all the reserve games at home. Several concerts are given throughout the year. This is beneficial in that it gives the band members practical experience in public performance.

Come let's sing with happy voices,
Lift them to the sky . . . .

Nineteen fifty-two — this year Shelby High School can boast of one of the most enthusiastic, and well balanced choirs in its history. Good fortune at the very beginning, many fine and willing male voices which have developed by practice, dischord, error, then success into a solid strong bass section and a clear and thrilling tenor section — thus the foundation was grounded.

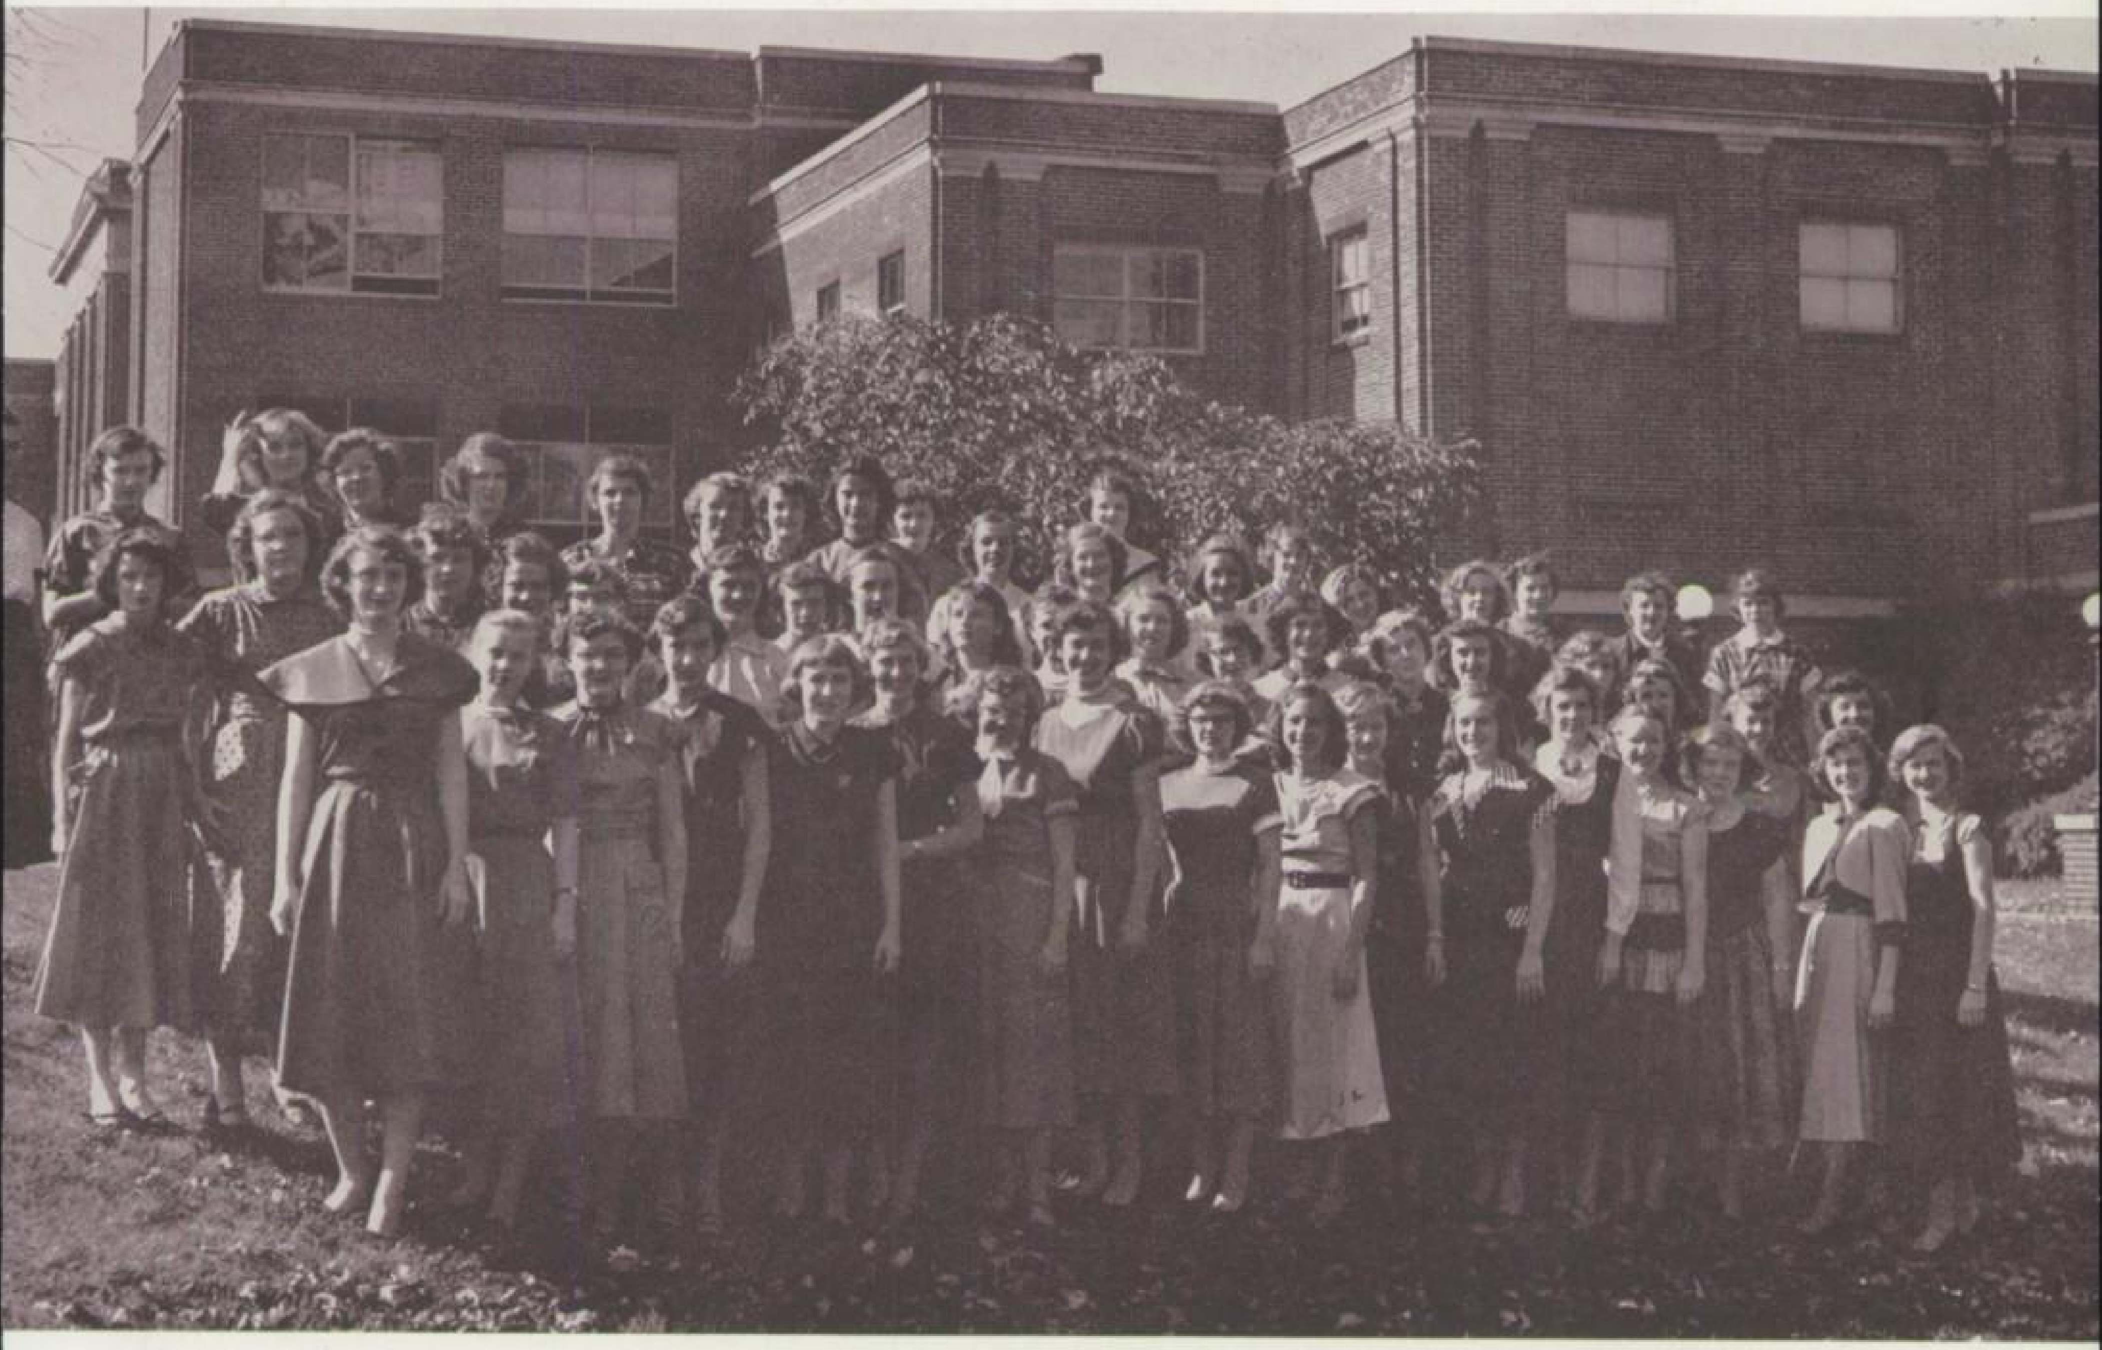
To complete the formula a fine sturdy alto and lilting soprano section were added and the result—"par excellence."

The general practice program for the choir was varied this year into one that has proved beneficial. The sectional rehearsals allot for woodsheding and reduced to a minimum the polishing necessary for the finished product. This program has made it possible to have a varied and large repertoire.

The sincerity and beauty of the Christmas music was a fitting gift to the community, and a repeat performance at the mid-winter concert in collaboration with the band was judged outstanding by the capacity crowd.

The keynote of success was the enthusiasm and constant hard work. Let it always be remembered and forever kept in use.

GLEE CLUB CHARMS AUDIENCES



FIRST ROW: Marlene Ziemke, Betty Wheeler, Jeanette Will, Martha Kenton, Carole Glower, Diane Guthrie, Suzanne Cline, Thelma Workman, Delores Gremling, Sandra Boudinot, Beverly Hoak, Martha Laser, Joan Fry, Carole Bendle, Eleanor Spangler, Shirley Ralston.

An important part of Shelby High School's music program is the Girls Glee Club. This group, consisting of 60 girls, is a necessary part of any musical entertainment the school may offer, and the skill displayed, is the result of many hard hours of practice. Practice is an essential part of being a success, and the blending, diction, and expression of these girls shows the desire and willingness to excel in their job of being good, really good. No satisfaction is gained from being mediocre in their music, and with Mr. Braden helping them, the Glee Club has reached its goal; still they never fail to continue working. Their ability to master many types of music is an accomplishment in itself. Religious, joyous, sad, and dramatic works are felt through the expressions on each face, and the quality in each voice. Through this year or two of experience is gained a greater understanding of music, and with this, a hope that someday they will be choir members. Keeping up its good work and hard study, the Girls Glee Club of Shelby High School can be nothing but a successful and inspiring group.

ENSEMBLE GROUPS RATED HIGH

SAXOPHONE QUARTET: Nancy Dudenhaver, Shirley Seitz, Bonnie Graham, and Edwin Hawk.

BOY'S ENSEMBLE: Chuck Hornbrook, Jim Kenton, John DeVito, Bill Laser, and Manning Haynes. Sally Harbaugh, accompanist.

TROMBONE QUARTET: Larry McFadden, Marjorie Sullivan, Thomas Ellery, and Fred Smith.

MIXED ENSEMBLE: FIRST ROW: Georgene Walker, Sally McGill, Sandra Mathews, Sandra Jones, Dorothy Emerson, Martha Laughbaum, and Sally Harbaugh.
SECOND ROW: Chuck Hornbrook, Wayne Milliron, Manning Haynes, and John DeVito.

CLARINET QUARTET: SITTING: Lourita Hannafus and Sandra Jones.
STANDING: Margaret Jackson and Patricia Wolford.

MELODEARS ENSEMBLE: Betty Walker, Carolyn Briggs, Barbara Strohminger, Shirley Ralston, Dolores Henson, and Lois Scheerer. Beth Crum, accompanist.

Shelby High was fortunate this year in having a large number of ensembles—in instrumental and also vocal music. These groups competed in district contests and as this book is being published will be taking part in state contests.

The saxophone quartet received a "1" rating at the district contest held in Mt. Vernon. The trombone quartet and the clarinet quartet also received "1" ratings at Mt. Vernon. These three will take part in state contests sponsored by the Ohio Music Education Association.

The Melodears and the Boys' Ensemble also took part in the Mt. Vernon contest and received "2" ratings. These groups were well received in the community during the year and presented musical programs for various clubs and organizations.

Mr. Sommerville, Mr. Braden, and Mr. Cottrell were sponsors for the various groups.

The Thespian Club scored a big hit in presenting the comedy YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU by Moss Hart and George Kaufman. Mrs. Klopfenstein directed the play and had charge of the stage settings. Mrs. Raymond Dewey did a remarkable job in securing furniture for the stage and Miss Luella Kuhn aided in the preparation of the costumes.

This was the first dramatic activity for many members of the cast. All were well selected and did a fine job of acting. The auditorium was filled for both performances.

Practice through experience—that is the motto of the girls who are interested in doing office work. Some of these girls gain practical knowledge and experience of the work by working for some of the teachers in the school. They generally work one full period a day and do such work as filing, preparing letters, taking dictation, checking bookkeeping and the like.

Mr. Archdeacon has several young ladies working in the Attendance Office compiling the attendance records for all the students and preparing the daily attendance reports for the school. These girls have been Faye Ball, Sallie Baird, Joanne Yohn, Pat Stout.

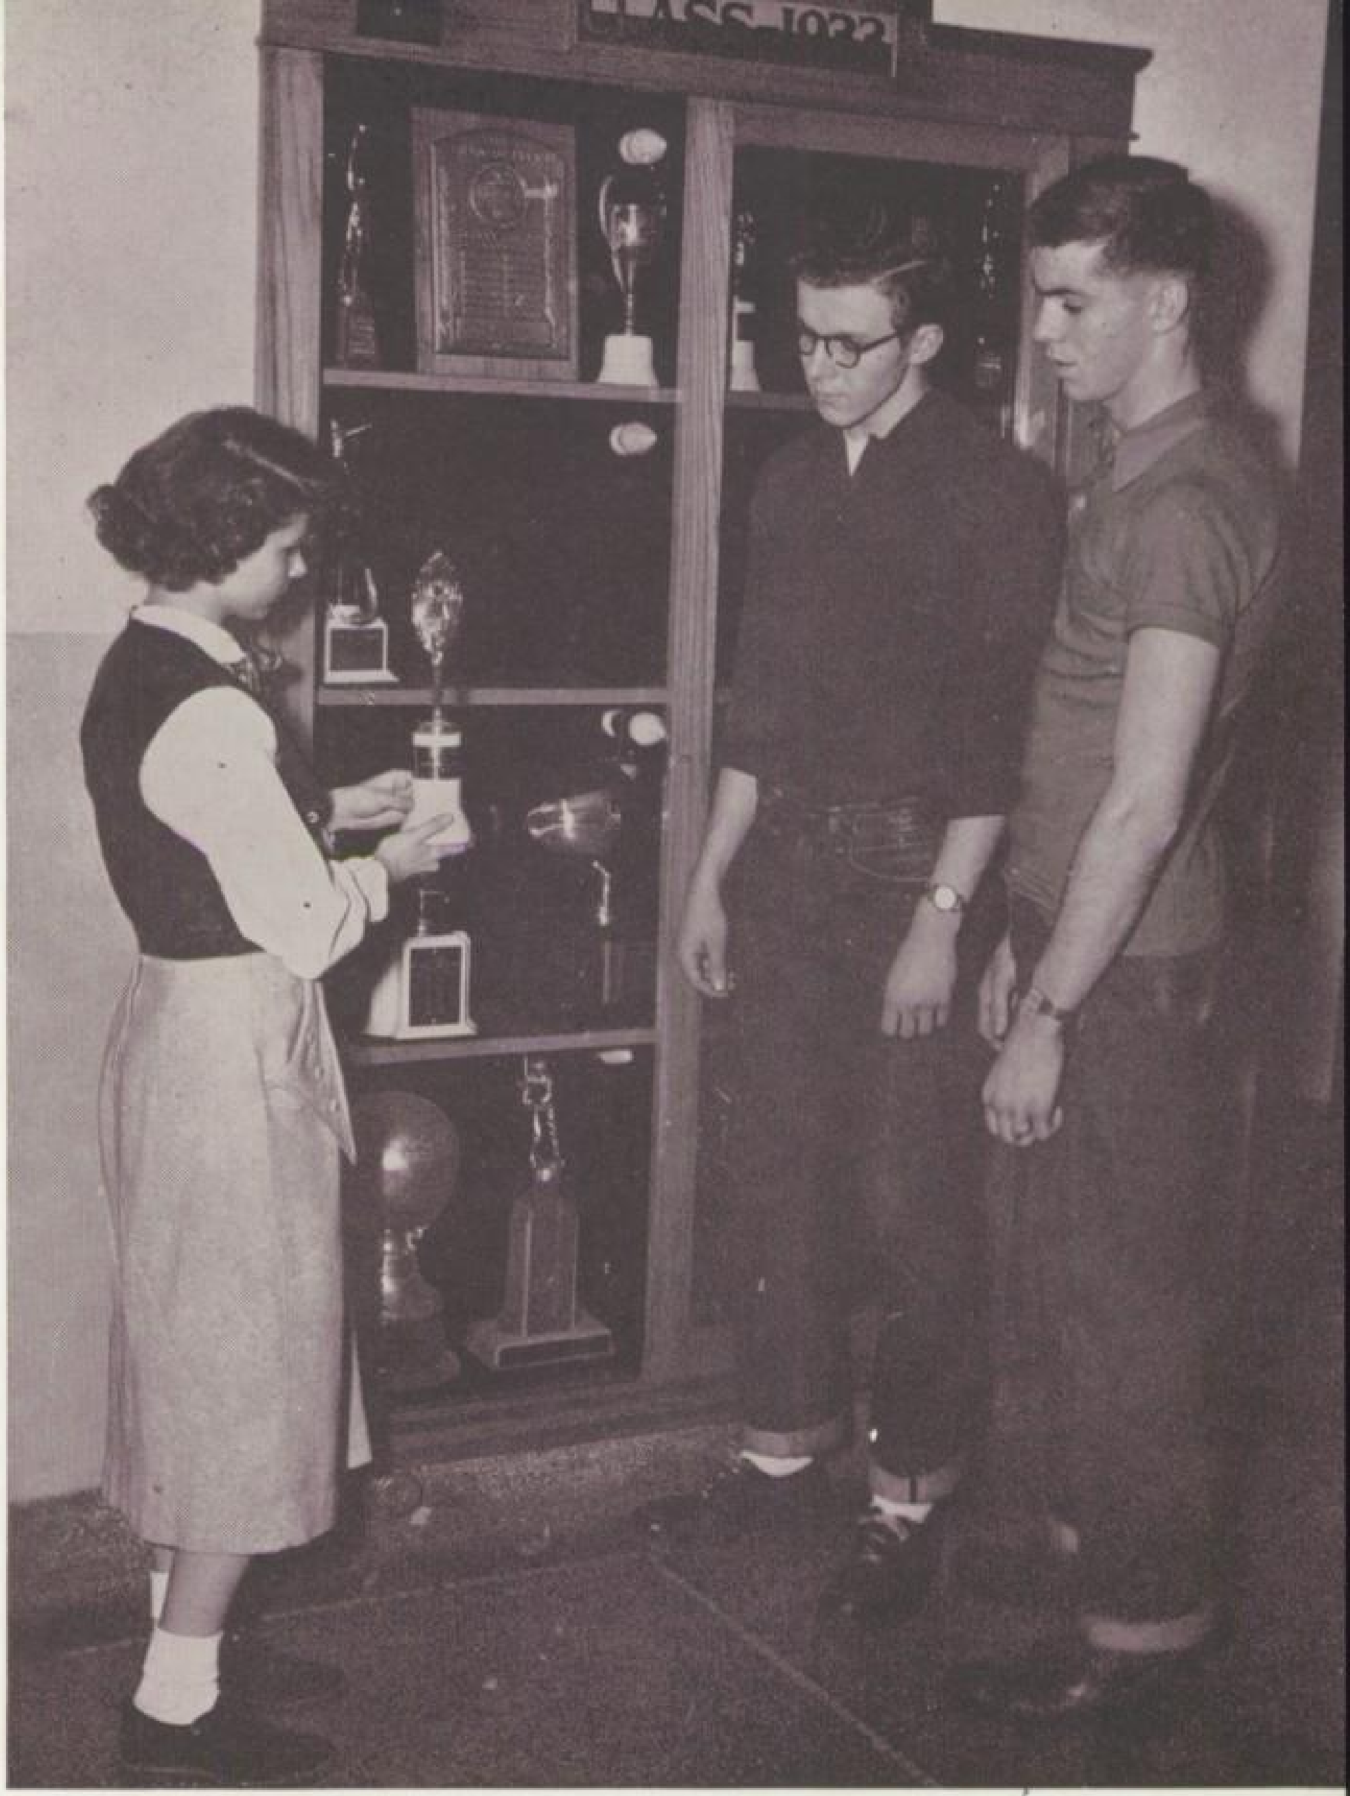
Work in the music department is varied and requires the services of someone who is interested in this work. Sandy Jones and Edna Workman did the secretarial work in the music department for Mr. Braden and Mr. Sommerville.

Sally Harbaugh worked during the first semester in the Guidance Office for Mr. Wendland completing many records and preparing letters.

Mr. Markin had Carole La Bonte and Shirley Ralston helping in completing records and correspondence for the athletic department.

All in all these young ladies performed valuable service for the various departments and at the same time obtained excellent office experience.

ATHLETICS



The class of '52 can look with pride upon its athletes. During the past six years these boys and girls have worked hard to build up teams, sportsmanship, and earn the respect of everyone.

It has been our pleasure this year to watch the development of future greats of Shelby High School. To these people we pass on a lesson that we learned so well. "Win or lose—it's how you play the game that counts."

Faye Hodges, George Hays, and Kenny Payne are only three of the many students who have stopped to admire the successes of Shelby teams.

The Shelby Whippet Football Team started the 1951 season with a victory over Mansfield Madison by the score of 13 to 6. This was a preview game of the season. Bud Milliron ran both TD's for Shelby.

In a non-league encounter Shelby was defeated by Fostoria—34 to 7. The lone touchdown came as a result of a pass from DeVito to Imhoff.

Shelby won its 14th straight league victory by defeating Willard 20 to 0. Bud Milliron again made two TD's and Foreman the other one.

Galion came to Shelby and defeated Shelby 24 to 14. This was a sad blow to Shelby fans and to the team.

When The Whippets met Bucyrus in a league encounter, they won by the score of 39 to 7. Gary Milliron, DeVito, and Reed were in there for the scoring.

When Ashland comes to town, then Shelby gets the jitters. Again the Taylor men came and won —33 to 7. Reed made Shelby's only TD. The team was not to be down; the next week the squad roared back and pulled the upset of the season by defeating "favored" Bellevue 13 to 6. The Milliron brothers made the two TD's for Shelby.

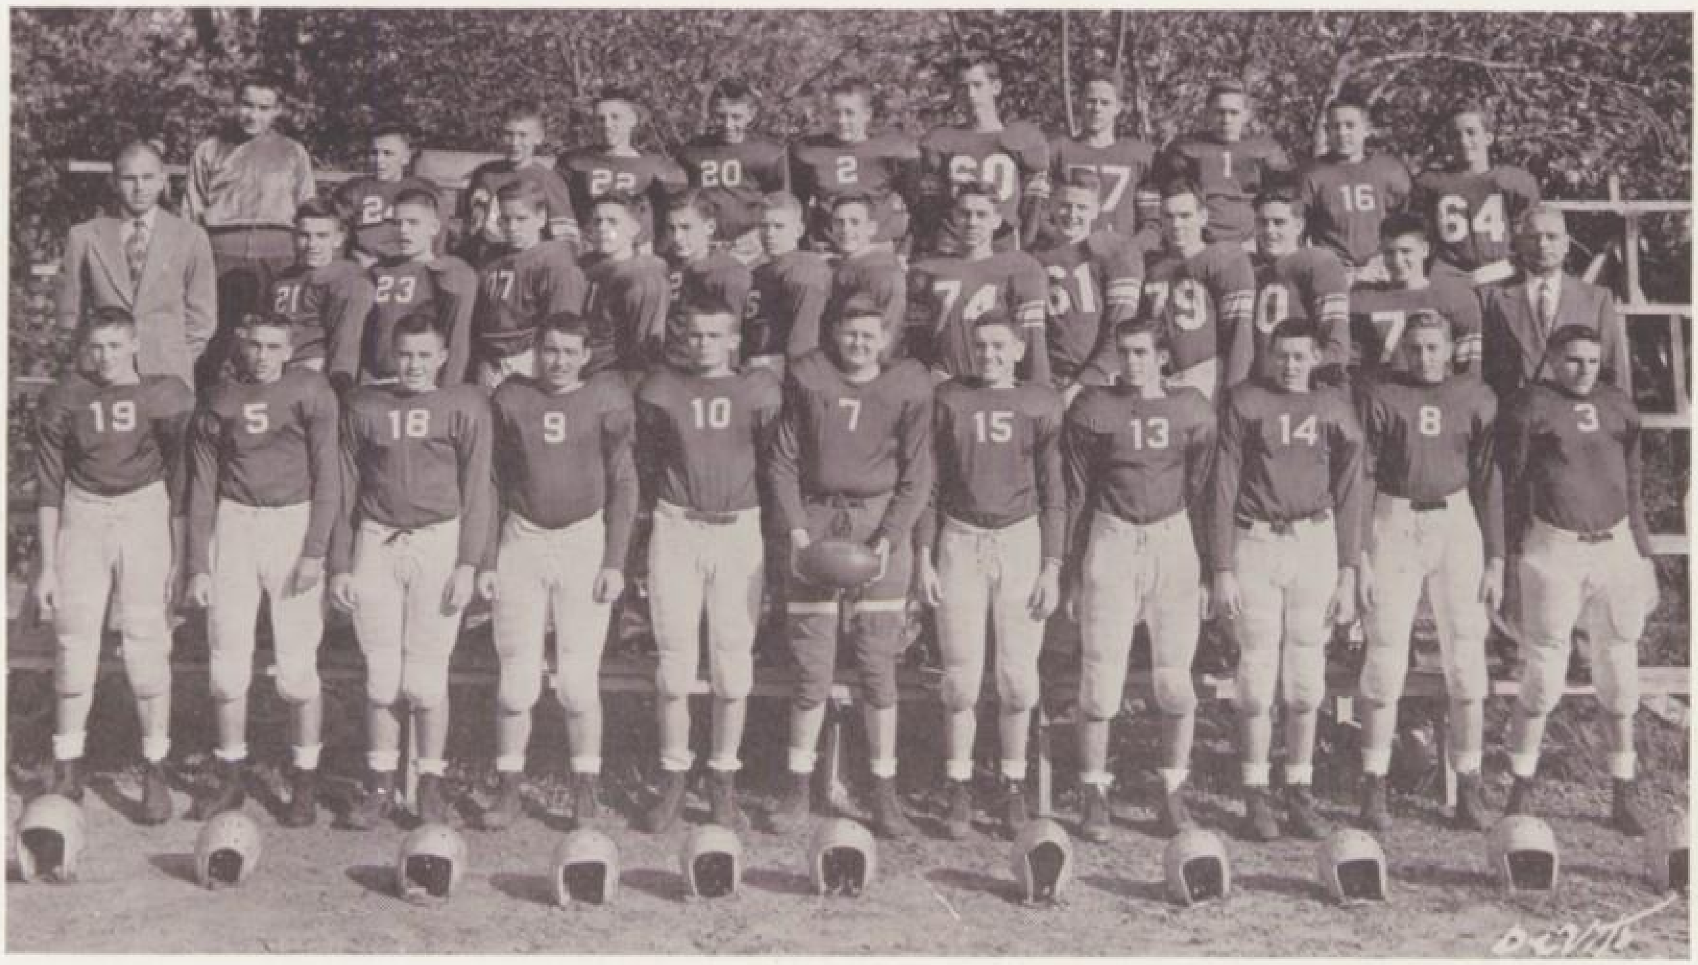
In the Homecoming game Shelby trounced Norwalk 32 to 19. On the first play Shelby worked the old sleeper play in a pass from DeVito to Payne.

Upper Sandusky ruined Shelby's hopes for a championship team by defeating the Whippets 14 to 6. Shelby's solitary score came as a result of of a pass from DeVito to Reed.

The last game of the season was played at Crestline and Shelby had no difficulty in taking this game 18 to 6.

Shelby lost its championship standing in the league but it promises to "bounce back" in another year and sweep the league once again.

RESERVES DEVELOP '52 VARSITY



FIRST ROW: Hopton, Knight, Emerson, Cochran, Alt, Henry, Metzger, Racer, Argo, Keller, Jim Chew. SECOND ROW: Coach Plocher, Keiser, Grimwood, Gross, Chew, Yetzer, Utz, Reau, Hornbrook, Hogue, Fidler, Barber, Souslin, Coach Yohn. THIRD ROW: Gates (Manager), Payne, Purvis, Seaton, Davis, Wilcox, Friebel, Bricker, Fry, Brown, and Knapp.

The Shelby Reserves again coached by Joseph Yohn and Howard Plocher came through with another successful season compiling a record of seven wins and five defeats. The Reserves broke last year's scoring record with 211 points while holding their opponents to 83 points. The Junior Varsity in their first six contests held their opponents scoreless. The first victory of the season was gained at the expense of Mansfield Madison 13 to 0, and in the second game Bucyrus went down to defeat 14 to 0. Willard came to Shelby and went home on the short end of a 33 to 0 score. The Reserves in getting their fourth victory defeated Galion 39 to 0. Mansfield Madison, playing the reserves for the second time, was defeated again 32 to 0. Shelby ran up its largest score against Bucyrus 42 to 0. Galion came to Shelby and went home very pleased with themselves after handing our team its first defeat 7 to 6, but the reserves came back in the next game to defeat Willard 13 to 6. A strong Ashland team paid Shelby a visit and handed the Whippets their second defeat 13 to 0. Mansfield Madison after having been beaten twice by Shelby gained revenge in a close contest 6 to 0. The Shelby Reserves lost the last two games of the season to Ashland 26 to 19 and Johnny Appleseed 25 to 0.

Dave Metzger led the Shelby scoring with 54 points and Duane Emerson and Don Argo each had 30 points. Many of the reserve players will move up to the varsity next year and will be good prospects for varsity positions. Watch out, boys. Here comes competition.

BASKETBALL GAINS SPOTLIGHT

The Shelby Whippets had a rather difficult time building up that win column this year. They ended the season with five wins and thirteen losses. However, most of it was due to the fact that Shelby had an inexperienced team with George Hays being the only varsity letterman back from last year.

Kenny Terry, the tall center for Shelby, broke the individual scoring record with 30 points in the second game with Mansfield Madison. Ken's total for the entire season was 273 points.

Following Terry was Wincel Ingram, guard, with 190 points; Dick Kirkendall, center, with 158 points; George Hays, forward, with 143 points, and John DeVito, guard, with 106 points. The total points during the season's play was 972 points. Coach Willians hopes to have a more experienced team in years to come.

This year the Whippets had a game scheduled with Cleveland Lutheran and therefore were the first Shelby team to travel to the Cleveland Arena.

The Whippets traveled to Toledo this year again to see the Regional Basketball Tournament.

Gibson, Knight, Reed, Bucknam, Argo, R. Payne, Davis, Chew, Emerson, Young, Wilcox, Clark, Keller, Thomas, Metzger, Utz, White, E. Payne, Coach Swackhammer.

After a poor start the Shelby Reserves found themselves and gave fair warning to their future opponents of trouble to come. Under the able coaching of Larry Swackhammer the boys developed into a well rounded and spirited ball club.

Roger Payne, sophomore forward, was high scorer for the Shelby Reserves. He reached the high water mark by scoring 25 points in one contest. Everyone was pulling for this speedy lad to break the High School's reserve scoring record but you can't play basketball with a broken arm and Roger is no exception.

Dick Reed exhibited the finesse of a veteran as he shouldered the responsibility of leading the reserves through the '52 season.

The Whippets won the admiration of every basketball fan as they came back game after game with the will to win even after several heart breaking defeats.

The boys failed to see much action in the latter part of the season as the second team varsity participated in these games to gain more experience for the coming year.

GOLFERS PREPARE FOR A PROMISING YEAR

As spring weather breaks forth, Shelby Whippet golfers are seen to break out their blasters, putters, drivers, and worn-out golf balls as they trek their way to the Country Club golf greens. There under the direction of Coach Yohn they put in many hours of practice and training for the privilege of representing Shelby High in golf matches and tournaments. They have no large "grand-stand" group to follow them in their endeavors, but they continue on and enjoy their part in golf competition.

Early in the spring months Coach Cokor issues a call to all members of his track team to start their training for track team competition. Some key men were lost last season due to graduation but this year's team is forming to be one of the best track teams that Shelby has had for a long time.

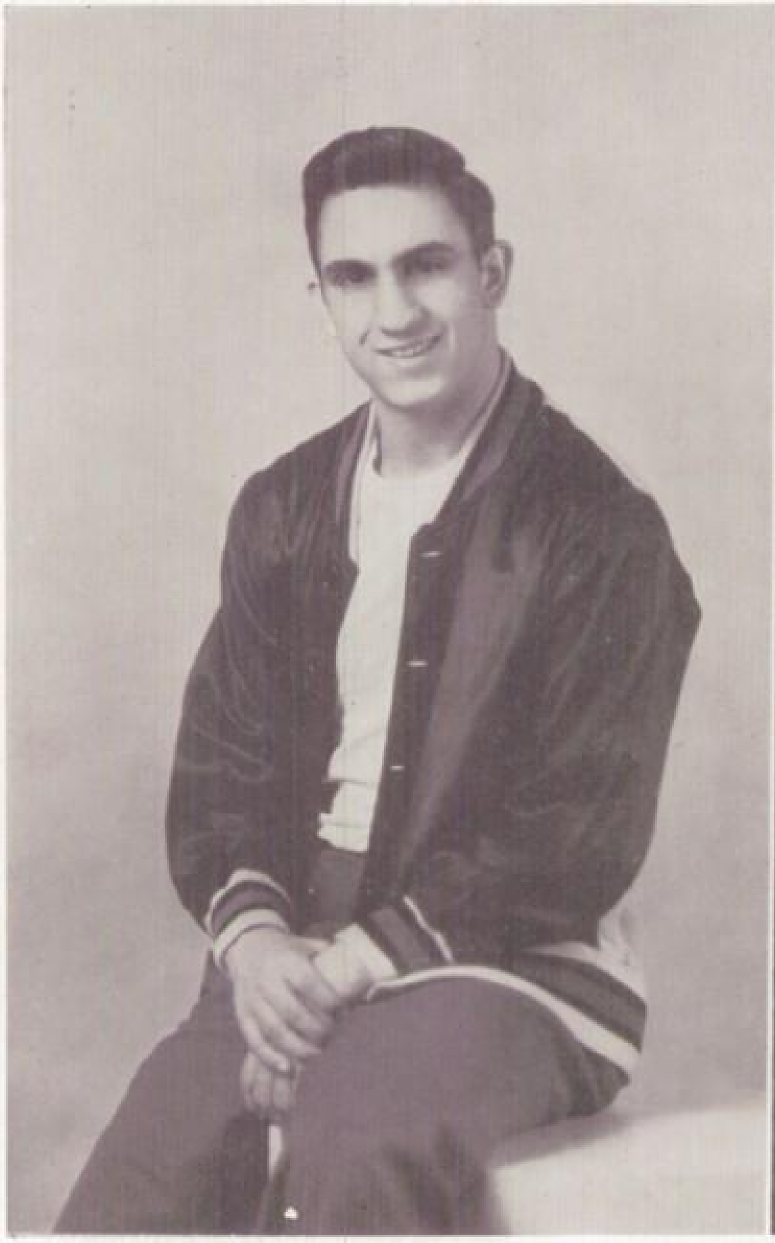
NAMED AS WINNERS OF ATHLETIC AWARDS

John DeVito
"Dirt"



Junadele Smith
"Judy"

Junadele Smith "Judy"

DeVito is a good example of a good sport and athlete. He was named to the outstanding athlete award for 1952 by the members of the "S" club and the coaching staff. John has taken part in football contests his four years in high school. During the past season he served as captain of the Whippet team and did a fine job. Immediately following football season "Dirt" entered in basketball contests and became a competent player for Shelby.

With the coming of spring John took his "spikes" and gloves to become a member of the baseball team. Not to show any partiality he also became a member of the track team.

For his many athletic activities and his performance on the field and court, John is thus honored with the "S" club athletic award.

Junadele Smith was chosen by the girls of the G.A.A. as the outstanding athlete among the senior girls for the year.

Judy has been an active and faithful member of the G.A.A. for four years and has taken part in all major activities of the group. She has proved to be a capable athlete and has excelled in many sports.

During the summer months Judy has served as life guard at the Seltzer Park Swimming Pool. Last summer she was selected by the Red Cross to take the special life saving course and thus became qualified to teach life-saving and swimming at the local pool.

The seniors take great pleasure in honoring Judy Smith this year.

THE LETTER "S"

The S Club is composed of boys who have won varsity letters in Shelby High athletics. Each year the new members are initiated into the club. This year the S Club started something new which will be carried through the following years. The S Club members have obtained the addresses of the boys that were in the S Club for the past five years, and now in the service. They will receive letters from the S Club telling them about the school activities and the latest in sports.

Besides the initiation the boys sponsor different activities throughout the school year to make money for trips. The S Club sponsors a square dance, cake walk, and other activities to build up the club. The boys in the past have raised enough money to go to see the Cleveland Indians play. These boys have worked hard to earn their varsity letter and to earn enough money to make these trips together.

STANDING: Dorothy Crosby, Nancy Gates, Nora Williamson, Mary Lou Willet, Janis Cowman, Pat Armentrout, Martha Waines, Lois Scheerer, Janice Pfahler, Beverly Myers, Marilyn Lea, Carol Whistler, Jeanne Reith, Miss Bachman, advisor, Mary Lohr, Shirley Ralston, Elinor Spangler, Lucille Messersmith, Norma Gross, Alma Stover, Gloria Sturts, Jane Swartz, Faye Ball, Nellie Pack.
SITTING: Marlene Stine, Joyce Moon, Doris Hunter, Judy Smith, Barbara Wilson, Patricia Gross, Shirley Apger.

During recent years the Girls' Athletic Association has come more and more into the limelight. With the assistance of Miss Bachman, who served her first year as advisor, they have gone far in convincing a few sceptics that girls make as good athletes as the so called "stronger sex."

The G. A. A. undertook a new duty when they elected the outstanding girl athlete of the year, Judy Smith. Judy was also elected president of the G. A. A.; she was ably assisted by Joyce Moon, vice president.

Any girl in the upper four grades of the high school is eligible to join G. A. A. The organization offers many opportunities for the girls of the different classes to become better acquainted and learn the importance of sportsmanship and working together.

These "outdoor" girls indulge in different sports according to the season — basketball, volleyball, soccer, baseball—they play them all. Several teams enter in competition with other schools but at present this isn't too extensive. This organization has room to expand and watch it go!

Activities for the girls who belong to the G A A (Girls' Athletic Association) were varied. However, one of the most interesting was that of playing basketball. If one can measure the enthusiasm and thrill in playing basketball by the degree of noise coming from the gym from time to time, then the girls really had a time there.

Other activities for the G A A were taking part in volleyball games during the noon hour as well as on the Thursday evenings when they met for fun and frolic. They also played badminton. Some games with other schools were also scheduled.

Miss Ann Bachman was advisor for the G A A group this year.

LEADERS OF "SPIRIT INC."

CHEERLEADERS: Faye Hodges, Judith Bricker, Carole La Bonte, Joyce Moon, and Corlena Stewart.

These five girls could well be called the postwomen of Shelby High School. Rain, snow, or freezing temperatures they're always on the job. And don't let us forget the ninety degree temperatures of the summer months when many hours were spent in preparing for their frequent public appearances.

This animated quintet was composed of four seniors and one sophomore. Al, your four accomplices next year will be doing well to live up to the standard set by Carole, Judy, Joyce, and Faye.

We should like to offer special congratulations to Carole LaBonte. For three years she has led the fans and in more ways than one has given inspiration to the teams. Being elected three years in succession is an honor Carole well deserves.

A couple of new additions were made this year. Miss Bachman served as advisor to the cheerleaders and four reserve cheerleaders were elected from the eighth and ninth grades.

Marcia Harrison, Sandra Frakes, Mary Tullis, and Ruth Tullis took on a difficult job in serving as Shelby's reserve cheerleaders.

At every game our cheerleaders completed the task of igniting the spark of student spirit. To the unsung heroes of "Spirit Inc." the annual staff extends its praise.

"JAHN & OLLIER AGAIN"

A slogan signifying a service created to excel in all things pertaining to yearbook design and engraving.

We have found real satisfaction in pleasing you, the yearbook publisher, as well as your photographer and your printer.

The SHELBY MUTUAL

LATER THIS YEAR this fine new building will become the home of the Casualty Insurance organization that carries the good name of "Shelby" all over America. Working conditions will be ideal.

CASUALTY INSURANCE is a big and interesting field in which many graduates of Shelby Hi are already making a place for themselves. You, too, should find it well worth your while to investigate the employment opportunities with the

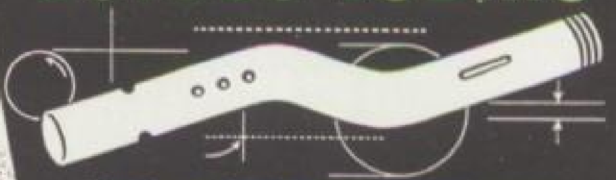
OSTUCO TUBING



Tapering • Swaging • Flanging • Bending
Upsetting • Expanding • Reducing • Beading
End closing • Spinning • Drilling • Slotting
Notching • Flattening • Shaping • Trimming
Threading • Angle Cutting • And Many Others

The shape of things to come—what the world of tomorrow will be like— should concern every graduate for therein lies the real key to success. In exploring the possibilities for your future, it will pay you to consider the opportunities presented by the field of steel tubing, in which The Ohio Seamless Tube Company—right here in Shelby—is a nationally recognized leader.

OSTUCO'S future is especially bright because the unlimited possibilities of steel tubing for increasing strength, reducing weight, enchancing beauty, and cutting cost of products of almost every kind have established it as one of the foremost trends in modern design. And the recent addition of advanced new manufacturing facilities will enable OSTUCO to increase its leadership in this trend.

Congratulations upon your graduation and, whatever your choice of worthwhile endeavor, best wishes for your success and happiness!

Here's our hearty wish for you:
May you always find a way to place
Your best foot forward with good grace,
Never tripping other men,
Never hesitating when
Tough decisions must be made,
Remembering that, "A game well played
Wins honor that outweighs the score."
Than this we could wish you nothing more.

AND FINALLY A WORD OF TRIBUTE

To all those who have made our school yearbook possible:

James Oldham—The Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company—for his advice and patience. (Also to Bob Summer of the same Company.)

Miss Mary E. Hill of The Gray Printing Company for her help from time to time.

Robert Lafferty and the members of the senior class for providing the money to publish this book.

Miss Ruth Stroup for her work in selling candy and pencils during the noon hour and at basketball games.

Joseph De Vito for his patience in taking the pictures for the book.

Glenn F. Zeybold for taking the pictures for the division pages of the book.

THANKS TO ONE AND ALL FOR HELPING TO MAKE THIS 1952 SCARLET S, A FINISHED WORK.
